Sports' Day at St. Joseph's College

Sports' Day at St. Joseph's is always one of the big events of the year in Naini Tal, not only for boys, parents, staff, but also for visitors who come to this hill station at this time of the year. It was thought that this year the number of visitors would be smaller than usual on account of the railway strike but the sight of the huge crowd at St. Mary's Convent sports the previous day, dispelled this fear.

For almost a month steady practice had been put in so that all the athletes were in perfect condition and awaited eagerly for the start of the sports. The usual air of buzzing activity and gaiety pervaded the entire campus from early morning and by 11.30 everything was in order and the boys rushed in for a hurried meal. Soon parents, friends and visitors started arriving. An air of expectancy descended on the oval when at 13.30 hours sharp the band struck up a lively martial air and the different houses, magnificent in their respective colours and led by their captains bearing the banners, proudly stepped onto the field. It was a thrilling experience to watch the different houses. Precision, alertness, manliness, poise and gait all combined to give an over-all effect of colour and sustained training. Wing Commander S.K. Roy took the salute and when eventually Pant House won the March Past all felt that they deserved it as the competition was keen and the other houses were also excellent.

The different track events were run off with smoothness and efficiency. Here the competition was equally keen. Records were broken and disappointments met with the real spirit of sportsmanship. The highlight of the day was the Open Relay in which five teams participated—a Sherwood team, a Sainik School team, a Staff team from St. Joseph's as well as two Boys Teams from the school. When the competing teams stepped onto the field, a wave of excitement rang out and the hills reverberated to the cheers from the various supporters. It took some time to get the competitors into the lanes, such was the excitement. The air was tense. Then the starter fired his gun and the race was on with a furious pace. It was a man's race, a thrilling race and no one could predict the winner. Every inch of ground was vigorously contested. Training, stamina and muscle—all combined to make it a great race. In the excitement and fury of the pace, batons were fumbled and agonising groans were heard from the supporters. Steady and relentlessly the Staff of St. Joseph's began to forge ahead and in a final burst of speed the Staff team breasted the tape to win the coveted trophy. The applause was deafening as all felt it was a well-deserved victory, a glorious victory, considering that some members of the staff did not have the youth of their contestants in their favour.

After tea, spectators were treated to a very polished display of Gymnastics and maze drills. Here the cultural side of the College was in evidence. The excitement engendered by the track events and competitions subsided and the artistic spirit was regaled. Individual houses and teams gave a beautiful display of drills, exercises and pyramids. The drills were executed to music and one marvelled at the timing, precision and accuracy as the different groups of boys marched in and out and formed all kinds of intricate patterns with an air of assurance and ease that reflected very careful training. Then came the grand finale when the whole college combined in a breathtaking display of mass drills. Troupe after troupe entered the oval bearing brightly coloured flags and for 20 minutes we were treated to a wonderful display of combined drills, those bearing flags keeping perfect time with those without flags and all the different colours and movements blending into one grand harmony. The effect was dazzling and after time one had the impression of seeing a riot of colours dancing in the sky. A few minutes later came the march past of the houses in order in which they had won the sports. Prize distribution followed. His Excellency, the Governor of U.P. presided and Smt. Faizunnisa Begum gave away the prizes.

His Excellency gave a warm and inspiring speech. He thanked the Principal for inviting him to the Sports, congratulated the college on its excellent performance and spoke of the great founders of the College around whose dedicated lives and inspiring ideals such noble traditions were built up. The old men were gone but their memories remain and in them are enshrined the principles they stood for and the achievements they accomplished. His Excellency went on to exhort the students to remember them, to profit by their training in St. Joseph's so that when they leave the college they will carry with them the spirit of selfless devotion and dedication to duty which will enable them to work for a better, more prosperous and happier motherland. Then came the lowering of the flag and the Governor declared the 87th Annual Athletic Meet at St. Joseph's closed.

Our Juveniles

The Independence Day Cup started this year on the 8th of August. Our B team played their first match against Shahid Suinik School and beat them by one goal in an exciting match, and the second match our B team played was with Sherwood College A team in which it lost.

The Final which was held on the 15th of August was an excellent match between the Sherwood College A team and St. Joseph's College A team.

The match was really exciting as both teams were evenly matched. Boys from each school were lined along the side of the field shouting encouragement to their teams. After the kick-off, it seemed that no team was going to score, but Sherwood, after playing very well, managed to score a goal. Then St. Joseph's scored shortly afterwards; thus the score stood at 1-1. During the second half neither team was able to score though both sides lost some excellent opportunities. So extra time was given, but again there was no score. At first it was decided to have penalty kicks, but the judges later decided to let the schools be joint winners—Sherwood keeping the cups for six months and then S.J C. Each player got a shield as a prize. There were also a few special prizes. The prize for the best player of the tournament was awarded to S. Thapa of St. Joseph's.

JUVENILES A & B TEAMS

Boating

The thundering success of Sem's Boating Club during the previous years, inspired many more boys to join the club this term. All members practised enthusiastically in order to make the grade, in the house and clues teams. The moment they had toiled for so hard arrived, but some were disappointed as only four could make a team.

In the Junior section class 9 won by a convincing margin. In the Senior section the I.S.C. team consisting of N. Fayde, N. Lima Leitao, S. Singh and N. Gandhi proved their supremacy over their B team and the P.S.C. boys. The second place went to the P.S.C. team followed closely by the I.S.C. B team. During the first length, all three teams were in close competition, but after rounding the buoys the I.S.C. 'A' team showed its superior skill and stamina and left the other two teams trailing behind.

The Inter-House regatta turned out as it had been expected with Nehru House proving their superiority due to their long and arduous practice. They clocked 12 minutes 11 seconds, thus creating a new record. Pant House were second, with Gandhi House a close third and close on them were the stalwarts from Tagore House.

After the regatta the boats were put back on their racks, once again marking the end of a sensational season. The tea party from the Boat House club was as usual sumptuous. The end of the evening marked the close of another chapter in the history of Sem's boating club.

Boxing

After a lapse of five years, from 1966, it was decided that boxing should be revived again in our school, and this is the third successive year of our school boxing.

One thing that a person requires to be proficient at anything is regular practice. Our boxers' lack of practice last year was duly compensated this year. More time was devoted this year to boxing. Good coaching and valuable tips were given by M/s Freddy & Wilfred Gomes. Then on the 12th Oct., came the boxers' chance to show their competency. All the practice and coaching they had had, all they had learnt - all was wanted now. The high standard of boxing exhibited that day surpassed the anticipation of even the coaches. During the bouts, the boxing held the spectators spellbound and drew gasps from them. There was scarcely a dull moment during the rounds. The results at the end of the boxing finals were Pant House (green) first and Tagore House (Red) second. The boxing so impressed the chief guest, Mr. H.C. Shah, IPS, D.I.G. of Police, who very kindly presided, that he expressed his congratulations to the boxers.

INTER - HOUSE - BOXING

INTER - SCHOOL - BOXING
Birla VidyaMandir Vs St. Joseph's College

Four days later, on the 16th, the boxing fever that had hardly died down was revived. This time our School was fighting another school, Birla Vidya Mandir. All through the four days, our boxers had practised incessantly, and now the great occasion had arrived once more. Enriched by good coaching and valuable tips our boxers were out to prove their worth and get a name for the school which they hoped would last for a long time.

The boxing that followed will be preserved in the hearts of boxing lovers who witnessed the bouts. One or two of Birla's boxers were really excellent but on the whole our boxers' performance was very good. Up to the last bout both the schools were even in points. In the last bout our school boxer won when the opponent was disqualified in the third round. Our school had won by twenty-eight points to twenty five. The prize distribution by Rev. Br. G.P. Bela, the chief guest, marked the end of the Inter-School boxing competition.

The Annual Concert

The curtains of our school auditorium were smoothly drawn together as the play reached its climax in a marvellously touching ending. A tremendous barrage of applause followed as the lights came on, and the audience saunteered out of the hall, regretting that they would not be able to see, enjoy and appreciate the play again.

This was the termination of the Annual Concert which was held on the 9th, 10th and 11th of June. "The long, the short and the tall" was produced and directed by Rev. Bro. Walsh. Preparations began long before the actual staging days. The cast had to be picked, the scenery had to be chosen and the actors' costumes had to be made. The stage crew at times sacrificed their town walks to help in the auditorium. The actors practised their roles each night and they also gave their time willingly.

After much picking and chosing, the cast was chosen as follows:

Mark Sen	—	Sgt. Mitchem
N. da Lima Leitao	—	Cpl. Johnstone
S. Punde	—	Lanc-Cpl. MacLeash
N. Ghandi	—	Pvt. Bamforth
R. Ahuja	—	Pvt Smith
V. Singh	—	Pvt. Evans
E. daLima Leitao	—	Pvt. Whittaker
A. Shah	—	A. Japanese soldier.

The setting of the play is in a ramshackle hut in the thick Malayan jungle. A group of soldiers from the British garrison in Sirgapore find the hut during their patrol and decide to stay there until a nearby Japanese troop passed. All the soldiers are fatigued and they stretch their tired bodies out on the floor. After a time when Pvt. Bamforth is on guard he spies a movement in the bushes. All are alert and crouch behind tae door of the hut waiting for the intruder to arrive. Suddenly a Japanese soldier throws the door open and is immediately captured by the British soldiers

Corporal Johnstone wants to kill the Japanese soldier but Pvt. Bamforth is highly against this. Sgt. Mitchem wants to take him back to base camp. In the middle of their squabble a Japanese signal is intercepted on their receiver. Now they know that they cannot linger in the hut any longer. Sgt. Mitchem is now all for killing the soldier. He and Cpl. Johnstone make a menacing more towards the soldier but Bamforth comes in the way. Mitchem hands his gun to Pvt. Whittaker to keep the prisoner covered while they pushed Bamforth away. This made the prisoner start and Whittaker in panic fired the gun and killed him.

This was the last straw for the nearby Japanese would surely have heard the report of the gun. So all of them hurriedly leave the hut. The last thing we hear is the volley of guns from outside and Corporal Johnstone staggers into the hut clutching his side and falls beside the Japanese soldier he wanted to kill.

In parts of the play we were relieved from tension by the sarcasm of Bamforth and his cynical humour.

The acting was unanimously declared superb. Mr. K.L Dua presented each actor with a silver medal. The boys also received pens as an award from the owner of Modern Book Depot.

Thus ended the Annual Concert with its last presentation, but not before it was marked a success in the annals of S.J.C.

Teachers' Day

The Swimming Meet

The 5th of September dawned at last. Everyone was happy and light hearted. Soon we had washed and dressed. The rest of the morning was spent in carrying chairs and benches to the Swimming Pool, settling them, and doing many other jobs. The non-swimmers were the lucky ones. They went to see a film in town. Nevertheless, in the flurried excitement of the various activities we did not notice the time fly by.

After a hurried lunch, the whole school went to the boxroom. Some of the boys got into their swimming trunks, and others into their College uniforms.

At one O' Clock sharp the chief guest, Cdr. G.D. Singh, Principal of Sainik School arrived, and the Ramnee girls and the Sainik School boys. The Sports were ready to commence.

R.K. Gupta wins the Figueredo Memorial Shield– For the most Persevering swimmer 1974.

The first race was the 'A' division 25 metres. It was a magnificent race, and there were gasps of surprise and appreciation from the spellbound audience. The water was churned behind the competitors, and a new record of 15.2 seconds was established. The next four races were as eventful as the first, for in all of them records were broken. The crowd was now hoarse with cheering, and screams of encouragement filled the atmosphere. The rest of the events kept the audience tense with excitement, and when the blue house 'D' division relay team broke the record, there was great cheering.

The S.C. obstacle race was really amusing and thoroughly enjoyed, not only by the Ramnee & St. Joseph's participants, but also by the entire audience.

Just before the exhibition diving, dark clouds spread in the sky. When the third diver was about to dive, the first few drops of rain fell. The dives were exquisitely performed, notwithstanding the rain which was now gathering momentum, and it was soon pouring.

Spectators, chief guest, boys and girls ran up to the school for shelter, and that was the end of the function.

The next evening, the Inter House water polo finals, and the prize distribution were held. The water-polo was between Gandhi (blue) House, and Nehru (yellow) House. After a gruelling match, Gandhi House emerged victorious with the score 2-1. This final spurt made Gandhi House the winners of the swimming meet. The following competitors deserve a very special mention.

N. Gandhi (S.C.)	—	Best Swimmer, and Best man 'A' Division.

Concert

As the first rays of the morning sun came through the windows and fell on our faces, we made ready for the day. We were conscious of an ubiquitous feeling of elation, for that day was teachers' day, and, after the aquatic sports, we were going to see various items staged by different classes.

HINDI PLAY

A. Sharma, S. Mongia, M. Joshi, A. Sattar, R. Sawhney, R. Jagati, H. Rawat, S. Lakhotia, S. Sarin, V. Verma.

The evening of September the fifth, saw us all in the school auditorium. The concert was about to begin. As the lights in the hall went off and the stage lights came on, a hush settled on the audience, who made themselves comfortable.

The first was a Hindi play "Paapi" presented by class VII B. The main character was Piyush Jain who played the part of a young man seeking vengeance for the murder of his father and brother by a notorious criminal (S. Ahuja). The play was extremely well acted.

Next was a skit produced by the Senior Cambridge class —'Ah.' It represented the numerous ways in which the exclamation 'Ah' can be expressed in anger, in fear in disgust, in pain and in satisfaction. A. Mehrotra and N Tandon acted the role of women in a lifelike manner. By the end of the hilarious skit, we had all dissolved into fits of uncontrollable laughter.

M. Joshi of class IX is reputedly the singer of our school. One could have heard a pin drop while he sung a popular hindi song 'Kora Kagaz'. His other song, accompanied by drums was equally captivating and the audience were extremely quiet and absorbed here also.

After a brief interval, the programme resumed. The P.S. C's play was one in Hindi, "Prem Visheshagya" or putting it more lucidly "Love Specialist" The main actor was Ravi Mehra, the specialist who is visited by a young man madly in love

(A. Sahai), but whose lady-love (K. Chopra) refused to marry him. The story takes a hilarious turn with the specialist himself getting hopelessly entangled in the web of love. Another prominent actor was V. Nayyar as the father of the girl.

Then came the tiny tots of class V who sung two quaint songs. Abdus Sattar of class IX entertained us with the tune of two popular hindi film songs on his harmonium.

Class VIIB then performed "Sailors' Dance" to a lively tune.

Class IX's contribution to the day was a humorous skit "The Interview" where there were brainless interviewers who themselves are questioned and humiliated in the end by S. Lakhotia portraying an intelligent candidate. One candidate (S. Mongia) disguises himself so that he can be interviewed twice.

L. to R : Keshav Chopra, R. Ahuja, V. Nayyar, A. Sahai, S. Goel.

The grand finale of the evening was class VIII's play "The Jade Image". A thieving couple (A. Jeddy and P. Gujral) hear that a school headmaster has bought a priceless jade image. They make up their minds to pilfer it .Simultaneously two roughs (Bagrodia & P. Lobo) decide to do the same. Incidentally they all meet in the headmaster's room but fall into a dead faint when told that the image is actually in the bank.

Thus an entertaining evening passed and Rev. Br. Kyle, our principal delivered a speech commending the actors for their splendid performance.

It was a yawning and sleepy, nevertheless happy, file of boys that went to the dining hall for their supper.

Table Tennis in S.J.C

The Table-Tennis Club was joined by many enthusiasts from class 5 to 11. There were three sections—Junior, Middle and Senior—and the tournaments were played on an Inter-House and Open basis.

After the Sports holidays all the boys got down to serious practice and by the 15th of June the House teams were chosen. The league matches were run off and on seeing the points it seemed inevitable that Pant House would win.

The half-yearlies caused a lull in the playing but soon after all the boys began practising for the finals.

L. Mascarenhas & K. Shah vs. M. King & N. Ghandhi in action.

The Inter-House doubles and the Open Singles finals were played on the 1st August. Rev. Mother Hermina from Ramnee was our Chief Guest and kindly consented to give away the prizes.

In the Junior Section the winner was S. Thapa (Green), but S. Suttar (Red) put up a great fight and went down fighting. They are likely potential for future S J C teams.

M. Sen, College Captain receives the winning Inter-House cup for Pant House.

In the Middle Section, P. Rana (Green) did not have much difficulty in overcoming R. Sarwal (Yellow). There were many good points won by the latter but P. Rana proved too much to cope with.

The Senior Section finals saw a gruelling five games between S. Suri and R. Chopra, (both Green house) and they matched each other point for point. In the fifth game all the spectators were tensed as the last few points were played. Eventually R. Chopra won 21-18 to win the Senior title and the College colours.

During the course of the year we played against Sherwood College twice and both times we were victorious. Our Juniors proved more than a match for them and our opponents went down meekly. Their Seniors on the other hand put up a very good fight and their best player R. Kaul remains undefeated.

Special mention is due to Mr. Gomes, our incharge, who takes much pains to organise the matches. So ended a glorious year of table tennis with many aspiring champions.

On Going From Sem

I am leaving the gates of Sem, taking with me memories of ten years: good and bad, memories of friends made and lost, of successes and failures and of people in whom I found love and understanding. I take a last searching look at the school building, and there it is in letters of gold "Certa Bonum Certamen." Yes, fight the good fight.

When I first entered school, I entered with a childlike fear in my steps. The austere formidable brick walls resembling those of a Cathedral greeted me and I looked or rather stared with awe at the corridors, quadrangles and fields. And now I am going, leaving all that was dear to me and my feet are dragging, dragging...trying hard to conceive the fact that they are leaving this blissful world they had treaded, for ever.

Ten years ago my childish brain was assailed with many doubts; doubts concerning the years ahead of me in these alien surroundings, doubts possible only to a nit-wit of six. Now I am departing from this institution and as I stand at the gates ready to create a new existence for myself, there are hundreds of dreams floating within—dreams of the past and the future dreams possible only to an adolescent of sixteen.

Everest couldn't have appeared more challenging to Tenzing than school did to me ten years ago. Perhaps many may think that a child of six is incapable of thought, I agree. But reflecting over that period now, I firmly believe that a similar non-integrable thought must have been gnawing within me. And now, it is all over,—over like it had been a dream—my ten years in school. Now I am ready to scale new heights whereas no such heights existed for Tenzing.

It was in this institution that the foundations of my personality were laid as were of many glowing successes in life who had the privilege of spending the first phase of their life in Sem. Perhaps still in remote and distant parts of the globe, many still recall this period of life, if only for a few moments. Oh ! it is for the ineffable ecstasy of these brief moments that I wish to preserve happy impressions of school-life for ever.

How can it be possible for me to suppress my emotions at such a time ? How can I stop asserting my feelings when I am seeking departure ? Who is there to scoff at me if I give vent to them ? Yes, I am a sentimental creature, perhaps far more sentimental than I should be; but I shall not justify myself, as I do not recognise the need to do so. Can this period of happy innocence ever be replaced ? Never, at least not in my lifetime.

Oh ! the mawkishness of departure ! It won't leave me. Soon they shall disperse, my much esteemed companions, to fulfil their obligations, their ambitions, their ideals to N.D.A., I.I.T. and I do not know what else. Let me take one last look at faces I may never see—faces I may never hear from again—faces among whom I have spent my most irresponsible days of life. They bid me farewell, the teachers, the friends, the school itself—Go boy go. Your days as a Semian are over, and remember, wherever you go, Certa Bonum Certamen.

Sanjay Joshi, I.S.C.

कल्पना का दास

कल न जाने कैसा होगा ! स्वर्णमय होगा, अन्धकारमय होगा ।
मैं आज को नष्ट क्यों करूँ ?
मुझे आज तो जी लेने दो; अपने स्वर्णमय संसार का
निर्माण कर लेने दो ।
मैं तो अपनी दुनिया का स्वयं विधाता हूँ ।
मैं कल्पना का दास हूँ ।

× × × ×

मेरे विचारों की तरंग को भंग मत करो !
मेरे मधुर स्वप्नों की हिलोरों को नष्ट मत करो ।
स्वप्न ही तो मेरे इस जीवन के पोषक हैं;
कल्पना ही मेरे स्वप्नों की जननी है ।
मैं कल्पना का दास हूँ ।

× × × ×

मैं सुनता हूँ पर ध्यान देता नहीं;
मैं देखता हूँ पर मुझे नजर आता नहीं ।
मुझे मूक न समझो इसलिए कि मैं बोलता नहीं ।
मुझे दार्शनिक न समझो कि मैं विचारता रहता हूँ ।
अरे ! मैं तो केवल स्वप्न भर देखता हूँ ।
मैं कल्पना का दास हूँ ।

वह कौन सा सुख है जो मेरे लिए अप्राप्य हो ?
वह कौन सा आह्लाद है जो मेरे लिए असाध्य हो ?
सभी सांसारिक सुखों से तो मैं परिपूर्ण हूँ ।
और न जाने कितने अलौकिक उल्लासों का मेरे लिए अस्तित्व है ।
इसीलिए मैं अपने को सबसे परे हूँ मानता, क्योंकि मैं तो कल्पना का दास हूँ ।
जी हाँ ! केवल कल्पना का दास हूँ ।

मैं भी प्रेम करने चला

नवीन युग में फिल्मों का प्रभाव सब पर पड़ता है, सो मुझ पर भी पड़ा। "सत्यवादी हरिश्चन्द्र" और "रामराज्य" के दिन तो बीत ही गये हैं, साथ ही इन रोमान्स युक्त "कला-कृतियों" ने ले लिया है। यह कृष्ण और गोपियों का प्रेम है न लैला-मजनू की मुहब्बत, यह तो "लिज टेलर" और "रिचर्ड बर्टन" का 'लव' है। यही लव का प्रभाव अनेकों युवक एवं युवतियों पर पड़ता है।

इस से प्रभावित होकर तथा अपने जीवन को कोरा-कागज न रखने की लालसा से आतुर होकर मैंने भी प्रेम करने की ठानी। "प्रेम" है तो एक छोटा सा शब्द, परन्तु यह मेरी सारी समस्याओं का अनंत स्रोत सिद्ध हुआ।

मेरी प्रमुख समस्या थी एक उपयुक्त प्रेमिका ढूंढना। मेरे निकट की जितनी कन्याएँ थीं, किसी न किसी कारण मैंने उन्हें रद्द कर दिया। या तो वे श्यामल वर्ण की थी, या फिर उनके केश फिल्मी अप्सराओं के समान सुहावने न थे। इस प्रकार हर लड़की में मैं कुछ न कुछ दोष निकाल देता।

अत्यन्त प्रतीक्षा के फल-स्वरूप मुझे एक ऐसी बालिका दिखी जो मेरी आशाओं के अनुरूप निकली। "भले काम में देर किस बात की", हमारे पूर्वजों ने सत्य ही कहा था। उनके पद चिन्हों पर चलकर मैंने तुरन्त ही अपने प्रेम-अभियान का श्रीगणेश किया। सोते-जागते, उठते-बैठते, हर दिवस के हर पल में वह मेरे मन में समायी रहती।

उसे आकर्षित करने के लिए मैंने अपने सम्पूर्ण रंग-ढंग में क्रान्तिकारी परिवर्तन कर दिया। उस "लिज टेलर" को मोहित करने के लिए मेरे टेलर का बिल दिन दूगना, रात चौगुना होने लगा। मेरी अलमारी भी पुस्तकों से कम और कपड़ों तथा श्रृंगार की सामग्री से अधिक भर गई।

फिल्मों के विषय में तो मैं इतना ही कहना पसंद करूंगा कि "हॉल" में मैं जितनी बार जाता था, जितनी बार मुल्ला घर में मसजिद जाता है। फिल्में ही मेरे प्रेम-सम्बन्धी ज्ञान का आधार थीं। लम्बे बाल तो मैं पहले से ही रखता था, अब "शैम्पू" और "हेयर-क्रीम" से उनका उत्थान करने लगा। मुझे संदेह है कि जटासुर के "केश" मेरी जटाओं से अधिक लम्बे थे।

एक दिन, जब मैं उस के पीछे मंडरा रहा था, तो मैंने उसे एक सुडौल नवयुवक के साथ देखा। मैंने सोचा कि राम और सीता के बीच यह रावण कहां से आ पहुंचा। उस युवक ने मुझे घूर कर देखा। फिर जो मेरी दशा हुई, उस का आप स्वयं अनुमान लगा सकते हैं।

अपने नौजवान साथियों को मैं सलाह देता हूँ, कि वे प्रेम के झंझट में न पड़ें, क्योंकि प्रेम केवल फिल्म के परदे पर ही साकार होता है। उसके बाहर वह केवल कोरी कल्पना बनकर रह जाता है।

Anup Mukherji writes from Mussoorie where he is doing a special course for the I.P.S. "The first four months here were really hectic. We were doing the Foundation Course. One of the high lights of the course was an eight day treking break in September when we went to Hemkund (15,000 ft.) Valley of the Flowers (13,000 ft.) and Badrinath. We will be in Mussoorie until the end of December and will then go for our two month external programme. We will also be in Delhi for the Republic Day Parade on the 26th of January and later will meet the President. Our state cadres have been announced and I have been allotted to my home state—Bihar.

With this we end this year's account of the Old Boys. OLD BOYS do not forget to keep in touch with your Alma Mater and remember "SEM NEVER FORGETS YOU".

The Editor and Staff offer their sincere condolences to Rakesh Sah and family on the death of his father and grand-mother.

Rev. Br. JOSEPH GABRIEL PAKENHAM 1889—1975.

Rev. Br. J.G. Pakenham 1889-1975

As this edition of the Review is being, printed the death of another member of St. Joseph's community occurred. Rev. Br. J.G. Pakenham passed to his eternal reward on the morning of February 5th, just three days before his 86th birthday.

Br. Pakenham was born in Dublin on the 8th of February 1889 and at the age of 21 he joined the Congregation of the Christian Brothers. In 1916 we find him among the group of Brothers who volunteered to work in India. From his arrival in India he never once spared himself, but did all in his power to lead all those with whom he was entrusted, closer to God. During his years in India he worked in almost all our schools filling the office of Principal in St. Joseph's Calcutta, St. Vincent's Asansol, St. Aloysius' Quilon and St. Joseph's Naini Tal. In 1970 he had the privilege of celebrating his Diamond Jubilee at St. Joseph's. Br. Pakenham's life was one of activity—even in his declining years he went for his regular walk and he took an interest in everything that was happening in the school. His greatest delight was to work with the Junior boys and surely the care and patience with which he prepared his work for them must have stood, and still stands, as a beacon to many of his past pupils when they think of him. His class was happy as he was a great believer in a happy class.

When he became too old to teach he still kept up his interest in the school and all that concerned it. It was his greatest happiness to help in the work in the office, but he allowed nothing to prevent him from his prayers and spiritual duties. In June 11th 1973 he was privileged to be present at the Jubilees of his confreres—Brs. Duff and Lyng. Many of the boys and friends who were present at the Jubilee Mass will recall the frail old Brother who was present at the Mass and who took a very active part in all the ceremonies. The next day he was removed to the school infirmary where he remained until God called him to Himself to receive the reward promised to those who "Do and Teach". During this time he was visited by many old boys and I am sure each one of them left with his own thoughts of the patience and cheerfulness of one who knew that his days were well nigh ended The care and attention of the Sisters of St. Anne will be written in letters of Gold in Heaven and I am sure that as this dear Brother stands before his Maker he will breathe a prayer, not only for these dear sisters, but also for the long line of past pupils who in turn will not forget to pray for one who did so much for them and who was in reality their greatest benefactor. His wonderful spirit of charity, patience and kindness will be long treasured by those who were privileged to know this dear Brother. Even when his end was near he kept up his spirit of humour and when he was in pain he did not allow his sufferings to take from him this humorous spirit. He has gone to join another great hero—Br. Duff—whose deeds are recorded in the Book of Life and with whom he was so closely associated. It is fitting that these two Brothers who were so closely united in life should die within two weeks of each other. I am sure these two Brothers, like so many of the confreres, are calling to all of us to imitate their lives of self-sacrifice and zeal until we are all reunited round the Throne of God to receive the reward which God has promised to those who have instructed others unto justice.

May they both rest in the peace of Christ.

Rev. Br. J.B. Duff 1898-1975

It must have come as a great shock to many of our pupils—past and present—to learn of the sudden death of Br. Duff.

Br. Duff was born in Ireland on St. Patrick's Day, March 17th 1898, and fifteen years later he joined the Congregation of the Christian Brothers. He laboured for ten years in Ireland and in 1924 he was one of those Brothers who volunteered to work in the Missions. He arrived in India in 1924 and from that day until the day of his death he gave of his very best to the youth of India. He taught in a number of our schools and was Principal in Goethals and St Joseph's, Naini Tal. He was never of a strong constitution but kept working to the end, notwithstanding the pains he must have felt. In 1971 he was admitted to the Holy Family Hospital Delhi where he underwent a serious operation. He returned to Naini Tal at the end of September, improved but very weak. In September 1972, Br. Duff was admitted for a second time to the same hospital where he had another operation. It was now thought that the Brother would retire from class but no sooner had the bell rung for class in March 1973 than we saw him off to his class to teach his boys. He worked the whole year without a sigh or a complaint even when it was evident that he was in great pain. He had the great happiness of celebrating his Diamond Jubilee in June 1973. During the winter of 1973 and early '74 we saw him again preparing his work for his class in the coming year. We were all amazed how a man of such weak health could keep going. In addition to his class he also took charge of the boys' library. He was ever faithful to the motto of the congregation "To do and To Teach" This was the ideal he set before himself throughout his entire life. Little did his pupils in St. Joseph's realise, that when they said 'goodbye' to him in December they would not see him again. Shortly after Christmas he was troubled once again with the recurring pains and on January the 20th he was removed to the Holy Family Hospital, Delhi where everything possible was done for him. He passed away to receive the reward which Almighty God has promised to "those who instruct others unto justice" at 4 p.m. on January 21st. A solemn Requiem Mass was offered the next day at the Sacred Heart Church, Delhi, and Br. Duff was laid to rest in York Road Cemetery by the side of some of his Brothers in Religion.

Br. Duff was a man who never spared himself in the service of others and gave of his best at all times. Many of his former pupils will recall the pleasure he got when they called to see him and told him how they were doing. He was the perfect religious man and never allowed any matter to interfere with his prayers and religious duties. He was a shining light, not only to his brothers in Religion, but also to all whom he came in contact with. We now leave it to his old boys and associates to recall all that Br. Duff did for them and to realise what a great Brother has passed away from their midst. He never sought the light but preferred to spend himself and be spent in the service of others. Many a prayer he must have sent up to the Almighty God for his old boys and I am sure that they too will breathe a prayer for a man about whom they knew so little, but who was really their greatest benefactor.

May he rest in peace.
