From the Principal's Desk

"Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world." - Nelson Mandela

As CJM Hampton Court stands on the threshold of yet another remarkable milestone in its glorious journey, I feel privileged and deeply honoured to address this edition of our Yearly Magazine. This institution, built on the noble ideals of our foundress, St. Claudine Thévenet, and her devoted congregation of sisters, has flourished over the years, shaping young minds with wisdom, character, resilience, and an unwavering commitment to excellence. The corridors of our beloved school have witnessed generations of students walk in as seekers of knowledge and step out as torchbearers of hope, ready to illuminate the world with their knowledge and skills.

A hundred years is a testament not just to time, but to the unwavering commitment of a vision that has guided us unfalteringly. It is a chronicle of perseverance, of hearts and minds molded in faith and discipline, and of a legacy strengthened by the dedication of our staff, the unwavering support of our parents, and the sheer determination of our students.

As Mahatma Gandhi said and believed, "By education, I mean the all-round drawing out of the best in a child—body, mind, and spirit." This year, once again, our students have proved their mettle with outstanding results in the ISC and ICSE examinations, a testament to their relentless efforts and the steadfast guidance of our dedicated faculty. To them, I extend my heartfelt congratulations and blessings.

As we stand in the present, celebrating our past, we must also turn our gaze towards the future. The road ahead beckons us to dream, to innovate, and to continue our mission of imparting holistic education. Let us reaffirm our pledge to uphold the ethos of CJM Hampton Court, to nurture young minds with wisdom, and to foster a spirit of compassion, courage, and integrity. May we always be guided by the values of St. Claudine and remain steadfast in our commitment to making a difference in the world.

As you turn the pages of this magazine and journey through the memories and milestones of yet another remarkable year, may you be inspired by the unwavering spirit of Hampton Court. May the light of knowledge forever guide your path, and may you carry forward the legacy of this esteemed institution with honour and pride.

God bless you all!

Sr. Dr. Rosily T.L.

Social Service

"The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others."

- Mahatma Gandhi

The greatest satisfaction is certainly brought through the gratitude from the community seeing the immense change that you have made for the public, This is like a reward of social service as you are the one whom people turn to in case of help and support. Every human on this earth should take it as a duty and responsibility to serve the environment and spread information to others as well.

At CJM Hampton Court, we are taught to serve and respect one and all regardless of their faith, colour and status. Together, we have built memories that will stay with us long after we walk out of these doors. We have celebrated each other's victories and stood by one another in difficult times, growing together in ways we could never have imagined.

As we part ways and step into the next phase of our lives, I carry a deep sense of gratitude for this place, our shared memories, and the lifelong friendships we've made. While we may be taking different paths, the spirit of our school and the foundation we built here will always be a part of us.

Thank you for a journey I will always cherish.

Although I joined this school just a year ago, this short time has been filled with immense learning and growth. I have gained so much knowledge, not only academically but also about friendship and teamwork. The connections I've made with my friends—who were once strangers—have truly enriched my experience here. This school has been more than just a place of learning; it has been a nurturing environment. I thank you all for being part of this journey with me. I will carry these experiences with me as I move forward. Thank you!

As I reflect on my time at this school, I'm filled with gratitude for the experiences and challenges that shaped me and above all I'm for the title of Head boy . From the classroom to extracurricular, each moment has been a step in my growth. This school is not just an institution where I've spent the last 8 years of my life, it is my muse. I've learned not just from textbooks, but from the people around me—teachers, friends, and classmates who have made this journey unforgettable. While it's hard to say goodbye, I carry with me the lessons and memories that will guide me into the next chapter. Thank you to everyone who made this journey so meaningful. Here's to new beginnings!

My moment to write my last message has come I have enough to write several pages of this magazine but I will use only the most precious out of all i am a focused person with absolute perseverance towards my purpose. I appreciate my parents and all my teachers who always encouraged me with positive enlightenment for a successful life. I will for sure miss my time spent at Hampton Court. Forever Hamptonion.

A seed was sown 14 years back in the time line underneath the ground of hope and trust of CJM Hampton Court. By the help of the nutrients of love, care ,wisdom , knowledge and the nourishment of support and guidance provided by the teachers in this school is unforgettable and unexplainable in any human language. It is their promising nature due to which the tree is grown-up to such a height where sky feels dwarf. Tree has grown stiff, and strong to a limit which is capable of undergoing the hardest situations of this nature. The time spent in this mini heaven feels ethereal and has special corner in my heart. Today when I am standing at the gateway to leave this heaven, my home, tears stopped forcefully are the only communicable

We all started together to move forward and further towards a bright future. All my friends and all my teachers inspired me to give my best and that is what made me bring out the best version of me. Today I am a very confident person all set and willing to take the challenges of life. I am very confidently moving on the path of prosperity now and it is all because of my teachers and Principal. They have worked hard to make our future glorious. It is at Hampton Court I realized that it is our elders and teachers who sincerely wish the best for their students. My parents and teachers guided me to realize my aim and today I am sincerely dedicated towards my ambition. Thank you everyone!

Saying goodbye to everyone is not easy and it's not taught to us by anyone. I will miss the time we spent together with friends and classmates. I am so thankful for this institution and as I finish this chapter of my life, I am also very much eager to see what the future holds. Let us all be optimistic about the future and always be ready to face whatever life throws at us.

As I bid farewell to my school days, I'll carry with me a tapestry of cherished memories and lessons that will guide me for a lifetime. From the laughter in the corridors to the bonds formed during classes and after-school games, every moment shaped me. Our teachers' unwavering support and the camaraderie of friends made these years truly unforgettable. As I step into new chapters, I'm leaving with gratitude and hope, ready to make my mark, but never forgetting where it all began.

Here's to new beginnings—and remembering where we came from.

I am overwhelmed with memories of laughter and countless cherishing moments. I remember the first day, as I walked through those doors, wide-eyed and nervous, unsure of what lay ahead and now as, I am prepared to leave with a sense of gratitude and wonder. I think back to the countless hours spent both, in and out of the classroom, learning and growing alongside my friends and teachers. I have realized that this journey has been a beautiful tapestry of experience woven with love and support. With a final glance, I close the door on this chapter, but the memories, laughter and dreams will forever be etched in my heart.

I never knew the time of saying goodbye will come so soon but when it has finally come, I must begin with being grateful to our respected Principal Sr. Dr. Rosily John and to all my teachers for building me up, to step out in the world and made a small boy turn into a young gentleman, capable enough of taking his own decisions as well as differentiating good from bad. The moments that I have lived at Hampton Court will make me smile and the honour which school has given me will be cherished for life time. I hope to make my school proud one day and pray for the well-being of everyone associated with the school.

It feels surreal that once the place felt so big and overwhelming is now filled with familiar faces, memories and stories that I will carry with me forever.

Each of us arrived here as individuals, yet we leave as a close-knit community, woven together by shared memories, challenges, and achievements. Our teachers have been more than just instructors; they've been mentors, guiding us not only in academics but also in values that extend far beyond the classroom. Their unwavering support and belief in us have demonstrated the importance of integrity, resilience, and compassion.

To our friends and classmates—thank you for the shared laughter, the inside jokes, and the unforgettable memories. Together, we survived long lectures, crammed for exams we swore we'd start studying for "next time," and navigated every awkward school event with our own sense of humor. We've been each other's support system, cheering and humiliating each other.

In closing, I would like to share my most significant learning to my juniors: "When you look at your old certificates, such as those for math topper or best athlete (if any), they will make you feel proud. However, when you recall the moments you spent with your friends that will bring a smile to your face."

Importance of CHERISHING Life's Moments

This world, in which we human beings live, is full of emotions. Emotions are feelings that we experience, which may differ from one person to another due to different perspectives and experiences. In today's generation, many people, especially youngsters, believe they feel low. I agree that some may genuinely feel that way, but at least half of them just pretend to feel low because it makes them happy to say so. You can sense that in this world, we sometimes have to pretend to be happy.

Life should be lived in the moment, and every moment should be cherished to the fullest. One can find happiness and cherish that moment by simply playing games or helping others. Our parents are the biggest blessing in our lives, even if they scold us; they feel bad for us and want us to live better lives. Having a friend who stands beside you through life's ups and downs is another precious gift. In moments of utter sadness, one must live life with courage and strength. Stay patient and happy.

Nandish Chand, VIII B

Friendship is not easily found. Throughout our lives, we meet many people, some of whom become our good friends. Friendship develops when people interact, sharing common interests that foster feelings of affection and care. Although we may not consider friendship a crucial aspect of our lives, it plays a vital role. While we make many friends, finding true ones is challenging, much like mining diamonds. The reason is that people today are often driven by greed, selfishness, and a desire for dominance. They may pretend to be friends to surpass others.

People today are not very affectionate and do not genuinely care about others. This cannot be considered true friendship, as the best feeling in friendship is seeing the other person grow. We consciously choose friendships, but our unconscious mind struggles to distinguish between good and bad. Choosing good people as friends is essential. Our hearts are affectionate, but our feelings are limited, like ribs in a cage. Never express your heart to anyone, as the right person already knows.

Importance of

GRANDPARENTS AND THEIR IMPORTANCE

We often say we love our grandparents, but do we really show them love and attention? Would you rather talk to your grandparents or play on your mobile device? Would you rather have fun with them or play with friends? I know we might find our grandparents irritating or boring and prefer our friends. But ask yourself, "Have I ever tried to have fun with them?" Our grandparents love spending time with us. I always try to engage with my grandparents because I do not want to regret it later. I can illustrate the importance of grandparents with a story.

My maternal grandfather's father, who lived into his 90s, loved me dearly. I was his favorite among everyone. He would give me anything I wanted. As a child, I did not feel like talking but rather playing. So, I never spent quality time with him. After his death, I realized how much I missed. He saw India gain independence, fought in the independence movement, and knew the real struggle for freedom. He had many stories about the British, freedom fighters, and more, but I missed them. I missed the opportunity to spend quality time with him.

Do not regret missing this chance; talk to your grandparents, for they will not be around forever. When old age sets in, all they want is someone by their side, someone to love, share stories with, and cherish them. As they say, 'old is gold,' so spend as much time as possible with your grandparents before they leave your life.

Vision

for the world

Once, Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam said, "Wisdom is very important as it helps you become a good person and do something for the world." I consider Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam an inspiration, motivation, and idol. His vision has helped me, and his speech, "My vision for India," is a masterpiece. Thanks to his efforts, our country has advanced in space technology and prepared for adverse situations. I have thought about my visions, not just for my country, but for the world, to make it a better place.

In 1912, scientists discovered ozone depletion in Antarctica, which inspired my first vision: unity among all to protect our planet. We often hear that the rich will become richer, and the poor will become poorer. This quote inspired my second vision: equality for all. My third vision is for all countries to end war, spread love and peace, and discard weapons. As Shakespeare said, "All the world is a stage." We only have a few moments to live, so why not live with peace, understanding, and love? If these visions are followed, there will be no racism, inequality, or war, and the world will be full of love and harmony.

The Dark Side of

Social Media

Nowadays, teenagers are addicted to social media. Every morning, the first thing we do is scroll through our phones instead of exercising or practicing yoga. That's why many of us are not very healthy. I'm not entirely against social media, as we can learn many things from it. However, most of what we learn is negative. We see many cases of teenagers consuming drugs, alcohol, and tobacco, eventually getting addicted. Many teens die due to addiction, while some survive because they receive timely treatment. Where do they get these things? The answer is social media!

Instead of getting into such things, use social media for useful purposes. Scroll for the good. If the negative impact of social media continues, it will destroy our young minds. Please be aware while using social media, as it can damage you unexpectedly. Think about your family.

The Little Fairy

A little fairy, Crystal, flew through the woods. She was as delicate as her name. While flying, she got lost in the woods, got hurt, and sat alone in the darkness. Crystal transformed into a tiny lily flower. She saw a light approaching and realized it was a group of fairies, including her father and family. She glowed softly to guide them towards her. A fairy from the group spotted her and exclaimed in wonder, "Is that my delicate one?" Once Crystal healed, they escaped through a portal to a realm of immortal happiness, leaving the dark woods behind.

Between the busy roads and pollution,

Our mind is under confusion.

And to get ride from this confusion,

Living with the mountains, indeed a great relief.

Sportsmanship

Sportsmanship is a vital quality that encompasses not only participating in sports and playing by the rules but also applying the spirit of sportsmanship to everyday life. A true sportsman observes the rules of life, just as they would in a game. This means being honest, respectful, and fair in all interactions, whether on or off the field. For instance, a true sportsman would admit to their mistakes, respect their opponents, and play with integrity. They would also apply these principles to their personal and professional lives, leading to a more harmonious and respectful society.

The development of sportsmanship is closely tied to participation in sports. Typically, those who play games develop into true sportsmen, as their character and personality are shaped by their training and experiences on the field. Through sports, individuals learn valuable lessons about teamwork, discipline, and perseverance. They also develop essential life skills, such as communication, problem-solving, and leadership. As they grow and mature, these individuals carry the principles of sportsmanship with them, applying them to all aspects of their lives. By doing so, they become positive role models and contribute to the creation of a more compassionate and respectful world.

Family is very important because it is only with family members that we can share so many things. With family, we can enjoy and share the thoughts emerging from our minds. If we are alone, without family, we can lose so many things. But with family, we can overcome anything. With family, we can make plans and enjoy our lives. Family gives us happiness and joy. When we feel lonely, we can't play, but if we have family, we can share our emotions, study together, and talk about our future and dreams. Family provides a solution to every problem.

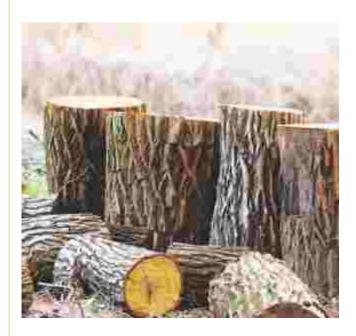

Family helps us from childhood to old age. If we had an accident, family can help us. It is only family who can understand our feelings and happiness. With family, we can learn new things and experiences. With family, we can go to new places and tours. A close family member can easily understand our feelings. With family, we can also start a business. They guide you and stand by you in your difficult days. This is the importance of family. If you don't have a strong family bond, make an effort to build one.

The Importance of

An Appeal to Conserve

To be honest, I cannot imagine myself wearing an oxygen mask 24/7. The current situation of our generation could have been far better if we knew how to preserve our environment for our well-being and for the sake of future generations. Unfortunately, humans have become so selfish that we are destroying nature for our own benefit. We are cutting down trees, wasting water, and polluting the air with our excessive use of cars and motorbikes.

To conserve nature, each person must take strict steps. We should reduce our use of cars and walk if the distance is short. We must stop cutting down trees and avoid wasting water by closing taps. For the better future of our next generation, we need to save the Earth and our environment. It is our responsibility to protect the planet and ensure a sustainable future.

Are Books Your Best Friend?

There are many important things in our lives, but there is one object that stands out as the most valuable – books! There was a time when knowledge was scarce, but as time passed, humans gained knowledge and evolved. We know that humans were once uncivilized, but as scientists like Albert Einstein and Isaac Newton made ground-breaking discoveries and inventions, knowledge began to spread through the written word. Books became the guides of humanity, marking the beginning of a life of knowledge.

Books play a vital role in our lives. Millions of books are used worldwide, and knowledge is power – power that comes from reading books. Books have the ability to transport us to different worlds, to make us experience different cultures, and to broaden our perspectives. They have the power to educate, to inspire, and to motivate us. Whether we read fiction, non-fiction, or a combination of both, books have the ability to enrich our lives and make us better versions of ourselves.

In today's digital age, where information is readily available online, books remain an essential part of our lives. They provide a tangible and immersive experience that digital media cannot match. Moreover, books have a way of connecting us to our past, to our heritage, and to our culture. They are a treasure trove of knowledge, wisdom, and experience that we can draw upon to navigate the complexities of life. So, let us cherish books, let us read them, and let us pass on the love of reading to future generations.

Frames of FANTASY

In the world where colours dance and play,
Where talking animals save the day;
Where heroes rise and millions fall,
Cartoon brings magic for one and all.

With laughter bright and joy untold,
They turn the young and the old to gold;
A world where worries fade away,
In cartoon land, we find our way.

For some, a memory soft and sweet,

A childhood moment that repeat—

For others just a place to dream,

A place where things are what they seem.

From lessons learnt to jokes that fly,
Cartoons lift hearts and minds up high;
A blend of wonder, love and art,
That speak to every hopeful heart!

So here, the world of ink and tune,
Where joy and love forever bloom;
In every frame and in every line,
Cartoon makes life more divine!

Forever Companions

Grandparents are the companions we have in our lives. They are the companions of understanding, believing, trusting, loving, and caring that we will ever have. They are the people who are experienced and always think about our well-being. However, we often think they are old and know nothing. They expect us to do well and progress in life.

When I was in a hostel at the age of 9, I didn't know much about life. I would cry a lot because I missed my grandparents and parents. After 15 days, I went home and asked my parents if I could stay for another week. They said no, explaining that I had to study or I would fall behind. However, my grandparents intervened and said I could stay. That day, I was overjoyed and had a wonderful time with my grandparents.

This experience taught me the importance of respecting my grandparents and valuing their presence in my life. I want to emphasize that we should respect our elders and never disrespect them. They scold us for our own good. As I look back on that memorable experience, I realize that my grandparents' love and guidance have shaped me into the person I am today. I am forever grateful for their presence in my life.

The Proud Rose

Once upon a time, in a desert far away, there was a rose who was extremely proud of her beautiful appearance. Her only complaint was growing next to an ugly cactus. Every day, the beautiful rose would insult and mock the cactus about his looks, while the cactus remained silent. All the other plants nearby tried to make the rose see sense, but she was too enamored with her own beauty.

One scorching summer, the desert became dry, and there was no water left for the plants. The rose quickly began to wilt, and her beautiful petals dried up, losing their lush color. As she looked at the cactus, she saw a sparrow dip its beak into the cactus to drink some water. Though ashamed, the rose asked the cactus if she could have some water. The kind cactus readily agreed, helping them both survive the tough summer as friends.

The moral of the story is: never judge anyone by the way they look.

Happiness

Living in a world with all our needs met, we have money, friends, family, and much more. The world itself is full of positivity, negativity, problems, and solutions. However, finding happiness in this world is a daunting task and seems to be the most expensive thing in the world. Today's generation is completely stressed and unhappy. If each and every person started thinking positively and finding happiness in small things, it would have a profound impact on the world and make our lives beautiful.

There are many ways to find happiness. Spending time with loved ones, for instance, brings joy to both ourselves and others. Happiness is not just a word, but a feeling of joy and love. It cannot be bought, but rather emerges from within. Instead of being sad all the time, we can choose to find happiness and make our lives and the lives of others beautiful.

The concept of happiness varies from person to person. For some, happiness is synonymous with wealth, while for others, it means finding time to sit with family and talk. Despite these differences, happiness remains a universal and essential part of human experience. It is not just about being happy at the expense of others, but about being happy and making others happy as well. Making someone sad happy is one of the most effective ways to heal and uplift them.

Finding happiness can be a challenging task, but the rewards are well worth the effort. It is our responsibility to cultivate happiness and spread it to those around us. Happiness is the best medicine for healing and overcoming problems, and decisions made with happiness are always the right ones. So, let us strive to be happy and make our lives a place of positivity, filling the world with happiness

The Importance of Being a Good Person

Being a good person should be everyone's top priority. It is the most valuable asset one can possess in society. We should strive to improve ourselves and become better individuals for the benefit of those around us. In today's world, being a good person holds great significance. Every aspect of life is given importance, and by improving ourselves and becoming good people, we can inspire future generations.

But what makes a good person? A good person is selfless, considering the needs of others alongside their own. To me, a good person is someone who can adapt and grow while interacting with others. Being a good person for the world, society, and everyone is far more challenging than being good for oneself. Unfortunately, many people today are selfish. In my opinion, a selfish person cannot be considered a good person.

A good person should possess certain qualities, including respect for everyone, selflessness, active listening, and effective communication. They should also be able to understand others, provide guidance, and instruct with kindness. Our ultimate goal should be to become good people, and by doing so, we can make the world a better place.

Shaping Future

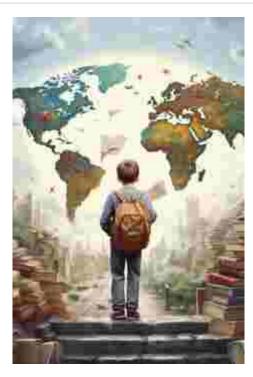

Our future is the most important thing we can secure on our own. Without anyone's help or opinion, we can create a better future by making the right choices.

The future is what we all think about and imagine, hoping it will be better than our present or past. After all that has happened in our lives, we want everything to be better in the future. A vision for a better future is all we aspire for.

My vision is to be very successful in life and achieve every goal. To be successful, I will work hard and become a successful woman. For my betterment, I will choose a field that interests me, and I will be ready to learn and experience new things. If something goes wrong, I will try to ensure it doesn't happen again. If I make a mistake, I will learn from it and try not to repeat it.

A better present will pave the way for a better future. If our present is good, our future will be even better. Our present choices will decide our future. I will strive to do my best to make my present and future the best they can be.

(Ematians

There are millions of people who experience emotions in diverse forms. For some, emotions arise from being with loved ones, animals, or nature. For others, being away from family can be a source of emotions. With millions of people and countless forms of emotions, the possibilities are endless.

For me, emotions are not solely dependent on how we react to situations. Some individuals can find emotions in anything, yet still struggle with inner turmoil. I often associate emotions with laughter, joy, loudness, and smiles. Notably, I emphasize the importance of loudness, as it is the first thing that comes to mind.

I firmly believe that being silently introspective while being filled with inner loudness is preferable to being outwardly loud and emotionally empty. Finding emotions in everything can be a sweet dream. When we are living this dream, everything seems like a fantasy, with each moment unfolding smoothly. However, as soon as we lose this ability, the dream shatters, and reality sets in.

When I am living in this dream, it shatters as soon as I hear hurtful words like, "You don't deserve anything." Emotions are incredibly complex. They can make us blind to the world around us and to reality. Some people laugh during emotional moments, while others cry, smile, or remain silent due to fear of expressing their true selves.

For me, emotions are like a delicate balance. If we experience them in moderation, we can thrive in this world. However, if we overdose on emotions, they can become the cause of our downfall.

Buy Experiences, Not Things

In a world full of material goods, it's easy to think that the key to happiness lies in buying the latest gadgets or stylish clothes. However, research shows that the real path to lasting happiness is through experiences, not possessions.

When we spend money on experiences- like traveling, attending concerts or trying new activities – we create memories that stay with us life long after the experience ends, unlike material things, which can lose their appeal over tine, experiences continue to bring joy as we recall the moments and emoticons tied to them.

Experiences also allow us to connect with others, whether it's a trip with friends or a family outing. Shared moments strengthen bonds and help us feel more fulfilled. Plus, experience often push us to grow and learn is ways that things can't.

Next time you're deciding where to spend your money, think about the memories you could create. After all things may come and go, but the joy of a meaningful experience lasts ca lifetime.

We Live in a Technology Driven World

Look around yourself, what do you see? You might see a TV, an air conditioner, or a laptop. All of these are modern technologies which have revolutionized the world. Even the school magazine you are reading is made using these modern technologies.

These technologies have changed the world so rapidly that if we look at the lifestyle of people from 100 to 150 years ago, it would have looked completely different from our current lifestyle.

These changes were mostly beneficial which have greatly improved the quality of life of people and also the efficiency of people. They have also increased the speed of transmission of news from one part of the world to another.

However, the introduction of these new technologies has also had some bad effects on society. These technologies have made us over-dependent on them. These technologies have caused addiction in children and have made the spread of misinformation quicker.

According to me, this world which we live in is a technology-driven which is mostly a positive thing, but it can also have some negative consequences depending on how we use it.

Women Empowerment

Women empowerment is a vital component of social and economic development. It involves the process of enabling women to take control of their lives, making informed decisions, and participating equally in society. Women empowerment is essential for achieving gender equality, promoting human rights, and fostering sustainable development.

Despite significant progress, women continue to face numerous challenges and barriers to empowerment. These include limited access to education and healthcare, economic inequality, violence and discrimination, and limited representation and participation. Women and girls often have limited access to quality education and healthcare services, hindering their ability to participate fully in society. Women are often paid less than men for the same work, and they have limited access to economic opportunities and resources. Women and girls are disproportionately affected by violence, including domestic violence, sexual harassment, and human trafficking. Women are underrepresented in leadership positions, including politics, business, and civil society.

Empowering women has numerous benefits for individuals, families, communities, and societies as a whole. These benefits include improved health and well-being, increased economic productivity, enhanced education and skills development, and stronger, more resilient communities. Empowered women are more likely to prioritize their health and well-being, as well as that of their families. Women's participation in the workforce can significantly boost economic productivity and growth. Empowered women are more likely to invest in education and skills development, leading to improved employability and economic opportunities. Women's empowerment can lead to more cohesive, resilient communities, better equipped to withstand challenges and crises.

To promote women empowerment, it is essential to adopt a multi-faceted approach that addresses the various barriers and challenges faced by women. Educating women and girls about their rights, opportunities, and resources can help empower them to make informed decisions. CREATIVITY Has No Limits

Creativity is your imagination to create new and valuable ideas or works. It allows you to turn your thoughts into reality, without any need to follow rules. Your imagination is a source of ideas, helping your creativity expand. You can do whatever and however you want to turn your thoughts into reality. There are no rules or guidelines to follow to consider your work valuable. You can freely express yourself and create what you want, even if others disagree.

You are not doing a competition where you need to meet someone else's standards. Instead, you should explore your purpose in creating your own work. Creativity is a natural gift that encourages you to keep growing it and inspiring others. It's a gift that stays with you.

Instead of thinking your creativity will disappear, see it as a chance to share your skills and improve them without limits. You have the potential to be more creative than you think.

Spirituality is a journey, not a destination. It is about connecting with someone that is bigger than ourselves. It is true way of finding peace and inner satisfaction. It is a personal journey in which everyone's path is different and unique.

Spirituality is not about religion, it is about inner self, the soul, and it's connection to the universal power, that is ultimately divine & endlessly peaceful. Spirituality is not about worshipping god, but it is about finding a purpose that why we have come on this planet 'Earth'.

Here are some ways that tell us why is spirituality important:

- Inner peace: It gives us inner peace and satisfaction that no worldly affair can provide. Even though we have achieved all the goals in our life, and there is no such success that we want, there will be some or the other how, an inner dissatisfaction, that will make us hollow from inside.
- 2. Purpose: Spirituality is a major source by which we can understand our purpose for coming on this planet. By this, we can link ourselves to the divine power, which we cannot see or touch, but we can feel it's presence only through spirituality.
- 3. Compassion: Spirituality can help to encourage our feelings of empathy and kindness towards the others. It can change our entire mindset. It can develop the feelings of trust, empathy, kindness, humility and mercy within us. It is very helpful in developing our personality and spiritual mindset.

Here are some ways by which we can connect ourselves with spirituality:-

- 1. Meditation: Meditation is a simple and the most easy way to connect ourselves with spirituality. It is the way of focusing on a particular thing, that gives us an inner peace. It can be simply practiced by closing your eyes and by thinking about the divine power power, which you feel is the way by which you can get an inner satisfaction.
- 2. Yoga: Yoga is a physical practice that requires physical as well as mental discipline and attention. It is a practice that combines physical exercises, breathing exercises and meditation. By practising yoga, we can connect ourselves to spirituality in a restful way.
- 3. Nature: Nature is the gift of god. By spending time in nature, especially in morning can help us to connect with spirituality in a powerful way.

At last, we all should remember that spirituality is a personal journey and everyone's journey and everyone's intention towards spirituality can differ according to their belief. By being spritual, we can live our life in a more fulfilling and meaningful way.

ECHOES of Time

The clock hands drift, so soft, so slow,
Yet years dissolve like melting snow.
Moments gathered, bright and brief,
Turn to whispers, lost in grief.

Footsteps fade on paths once known,
Shadows linger where we've grown.
Laughter echoes, dim and deep,
In halls where dreams now softly sleep.

A childhood sun, a lover's gaze,
Golden days through misty haze.
Pages turn, the ink may fade,
But in our hearts, the past is stayed.

Time may steal, but love remains,
A thread still woven through our veins.
In fleeting light, in midnight's call,
Memories rise—they never fall.

THE HEART OF LEARNING

Within these walls so strong and bright,

A world awakens to wisdom's light.

The echoes of laughter, lessons, and cheer,

Fill the halls year after year.

Books and blackboards, pens in hand,
Dreams take flight, ideas expand.
Teachers guide with patient grace,
Helping each mind find its place.

The playground hums with joy and fun,
Under the sky, beneath the sun.
Friendships bloom like flowers fair,
Memories made beyond compare.

A second home, a sacred space,
Where knowledge shines in every face.
Oh, dear school, our guiding star,
You shape us into who we are.

Our Generation

Our generation will be known for nothing.

Never will anybody say,

We were the peak of mankind.

That is wrong, the truth is Our generation was a failure.

Thinking that

We actually succeeded

Is a waste. And we know Living only for money and power Is the way to go.

Being loving, respectful, and kind

Is a dumb thing to do.

Forgetting about that time, Will not be easy, but we will try.

Changing our world for the better

Is something we never did. Giving up

Was how we handled our problems.

Working hard

Was a joke.

We knew that

People thought we couldn't come back

That might be true,

Unless we turn things around (Read from bottom to top now)

Learning is More INTERESTING When Pain is Your TEACHER

Life is a complex and dynamic journey, when we think of learning, we often associate it with positive experiences- a wise mentor, a fascinating book or engaging lecture. However some of the most profound lessons we learn in life come from a different teacher-(like pain).

Pain has a way of grabbing our attention, making us sit up and take notice. It's a harsh but effective teacher that can help us learn and grow in ways we never thought possible. When we experience pain,we are forced to confront our limitations, weakness and mistakes. We are compelled to re- evaluate our choices and actions and to seek new paths forward.

Pain also teaches us empathy and compassion. When we suffer , we gain a deeper understanding of the struggles others may be facing. We become more patient, more kind and more willing to lend a helping hand.

Furthermore, learning from pain foster creativity and innovation. When we're forced to navigate difficult circumstances, we often discover new solutions and approaches that we wouldn't have considered otherwise. By embracing pain as a teacher, we can gain valuable insights, develop new strength, and emerge stronger, wiser and more compassionate individuals.

In conclusion, while pain may not be the most comfortable teacher, it is certainly one of the most effective. By learning from our struggles and setbacks, we can gain deeper understanding of ourselves and the world around us. So the next time pain comes our way, embrace it as an opportunity to grow, learn and become a stronger more resilient version of vourself.

Pain may be harsh teacher, but it's the best one. It teaches you to appreciate the good times and to never take anything for granted.

The Power of Our Dreams: A Journey Within

Dreams. We all have them, whether we're asleep or awake. As we close our eyes at night, our minds take us on wild adventures, often far beyond the limits of reality. But it's not just our sleeping dreams that shape us—it's our waking dreams too. The ones we hold close to our hearts, the aspirations that fuel us, the goals that push us forward.

When we dream, we step into a world of endless possibilities. It's a world where anything is achievable, where we can be whoever we want to be. Yet, how often do we let the world around us cloud those dreams? We grow up, we face challenges, and suddenly, our dreams seem too big, too far-fetched. But here's the truth: the power of our dreams doesn't fade with age or circumstance; it only grows stronger if we allow it.

Think about it. Every person who ever achieved something great, whether a scientist, an artist, or an athlete, once had a dream. They were told it was impossible, or that they weren't good enough. But they didn't stop. Why? Because they believed in their dream. They didn't just see a vision; they saw the journey to get there. And that journey wasn't always easy. It was full of obstacles, setbacks, and moments of doubt. But in those moments, they chose to believe, to keep pushing forward, knowing that every step brought them closer.

As students, we often find ourselves caught in the whirlwind of exams, assignments, and expectations. It can feel like we're just going through the motions, ticking off boxes, with little time to think about where we're heading. But right now, we are in the most powerful phase of our lives. The dreams we nurture today will shape the people we become tomorrow. Whether it's becoming a doctor, an artist, an engineer, or just a person who makes a difference in the lives of others, our dreams are the compass that guides us.

But here's the secret: dreams are not just about the destination; they are about the journey. The moments of struggle, the lessons we learn, and the people we meet along the way are all part of what makes our dreams meaningful. And even when things get tough, remember that it's not the challenges that define us—it's how we respond to them.

So, the next time you feel like your dreams are too far away, too impossible, think again. The world is full of dreamers who dared to believe. You are one of them. Your dreams matter, no matter how big or small, and they will lead you to places you've never imagined.

Dreams are the heartbeat of our lives. They are our hopes, our desires, and our future. Hold onto them tightly, chase them fearlessly, and never forget that the power to achieve anything lies within you.

So, what's your dream?

Never Dead

Sophie stepped out of the hostel with tears in her eyes ,she had just received the news of her mother's death she walked slowly through the cold, dark and quiet hallway towards the taxi. As she stepped in the driver felt as if an anintidimating aura had filled the entire vehicle As he drove he kept noticing her .He saw how her face was as pale ad the snow and her eyes were as dark as the night. Sophie kept remembering the lovely moments she had spent with her mother but now they had come to an end like a broken glass shattered into a million pieces, irreparable. As she entered the funeral house her heart felt heavy all of her body was cold she entered the room all of her relatives decided to give her a moment alone she wept on her mother's body and as she was about to leave and he felt the aura freeze as if time had stopped and heard a faint whisper which led to her heart skip a. beat she turned back just to witness the horror of her dead mother standing and she said "welcome home dear"

Okay, hear me out—what if life isn't as real as we think? Some scientists believe we could be living in a superadvanced simulation, like a giant video game. The idea? If future civilizations can create insanely realistic virtual worlds, maybe we're already in one—and we just don't know it.

Ever notice weird coincidences or feel like reality is a little off? Some say those could be "glitches" in the system. Wild, right?

If this is a simulation, let's hope whoever's running it is rooting for us—or at least gives us some cheat codes.

MY SCHOOL

My school is a place where learning begins;

Students and teachers all become friends.

Geography, Maths, Science and History;

All together we solve the unsolved mystery.

There're friends, there're rivals, there're failures and success;

The memories are a lot but they seem too less.

There're things that we love, there're things that we hate;

Hampton is the best without any debate.

There are lessons, there're corrections, we get when we're wrong;

Together we sing an unforgettable song.

We have hidden talents that we've waited for long;

In Hampton, we're taught to be valiant and strong.

There are memories that all of us leave behind;

And those are forever ingrained in our mind.

We learn to rise, the moment we fall;

We're always taught, that work conquers all.

As teachers, patience is our priority;

And we receive the love of our Hamptonians in majority.

Sometimes the classrooms and lessons become monotonous for us too;

None can imagine what we are going through.

We come back with enthusiasm without further pleadings;

Because we all follow Mother Claudine's teachings.

We want our Hamptonians to rise like a bright star in the sky;

For it, we indulge and teach them to fly.

We mesmerize and cherish their success, when they meet us some day;

We bless them with laughter and may they never receive any hurdle in their way.

Through the walls of Hampton and Beyond

As the walls of Hampton want us to hear,

The glories of an incredible past appear.

A message echoes through the halls of time,

Of courage, honour, and a legacy sublime.

Within these walls, where dreams and hopes reside,
Generations of learners have learned and thrived.
The spirit of Hampton, a flame that burns so bright,
Guides us forward, through day and night.

CJM Hampton Court, a symbol of excellence true, Where hearts can tell, and stories shine through. The triumphs and pauses, the past and the present blend, Inspiring us to reach for the greatness, and to transcend.

So let us cherish, the heritage that we hold dear,
And honour the traditions that bring us near.

For Hampton's spirit is a gift to us all,
A treasure to cherish, and never to fall.

For the sky is the limit, and the story's eternal too,

CJM Hampton Court thrives, through endurance and experience anew.

मेरा विश्वास

जीवन में ऊंचाइयों को छूने की अभिलाषा है, नहीं कोई साथ मेरे बस यही एक आशा है कि मेरी मेहनत एक दिन रंग लाएगी दूर कितनी हो मंजिल हासिल हो जाएगी।

है कौन यहां जिसने बिना मेहनत के पाया मुकाम है कौन यहां? जिसने किए, बिना परिश्रम के सारे काम? राह में कठिनाइयों का काफिला तमाम है? पर मेरे अंदर भी हौसलों का तूफान है।

चलना पड़ेगा मुझे अगर होना है कामयाब, झेलना पड़ेगा मुझे मुश्किलों का झोंका बेमिसाल, एक न एक दिन तो कष्ट दूर हो जाएंगे। बस कर रही हूं उस दिन का इंतजार जिस दिन मेरे सपने सभी सच हो जाएंगे।

आभा पवार-कक्षा11

में फिर ना मिलूंगा

यह कहानी तीन दोस्तों की है। ज्ञान, धन और विश्वास । तीनों बहुत अच्छे दोस्त थे। तीनों में प्यार भी बहुत था। एक बार किसी वजह से तीनों को अलग होना पड़ा, तब तीनों ने एक दूसरे से सवाल किया कि आज के बाद हम कहां मिलेंगे? इस पर ज्ञान ने कहा– में मंदिर, मस्जिद और किताबों में मिलूंगा। धन ने कहा– मैं अमीरों के पास मिलूंगा।

विश्वास चुप रहा और कुछ नहीं बोला। जब दोनों दोस्तों ने उसे चुप रहने का कारण पूछा तो विश्वास ने रोते हुए कहा– मैं एक बार चला गया तो फिर कभी नहीं मिल पाऊंगा।

यह छोटी सी कहानी हमें सिखाती है कि ज्ञान और धन आप जब चाहे तब प्राप्त कर सकते हैं लेकिन विश्वास एक बार टूट जाए तो फिर वापस आना मुश्किल है।

अंशिका खरोला-कक्षा 6

एक मछुआरा काँटा डाले तालाब के किनारे बैठा था। फिर काफी समय बाद भी कोई मछली कांटे में नहीं फांसी, ना ही कोई हलचल हुई तो वह सोचने लगा.... कहीं ऐसा तो नहीं कि मैं काँटा गलत जगह डाल दिया है। यहां कोई मछली ही ना हो!

उसने तालाब में झांका तो देखा कि उसके कांटे के आसपास तो बहुत सी मछिलयां थी उसे बहुत आश्चर्य हुआ कि इतनी मछिलयां होने के बाद भी कोई मछिली फांसी क्यों नहीं ?

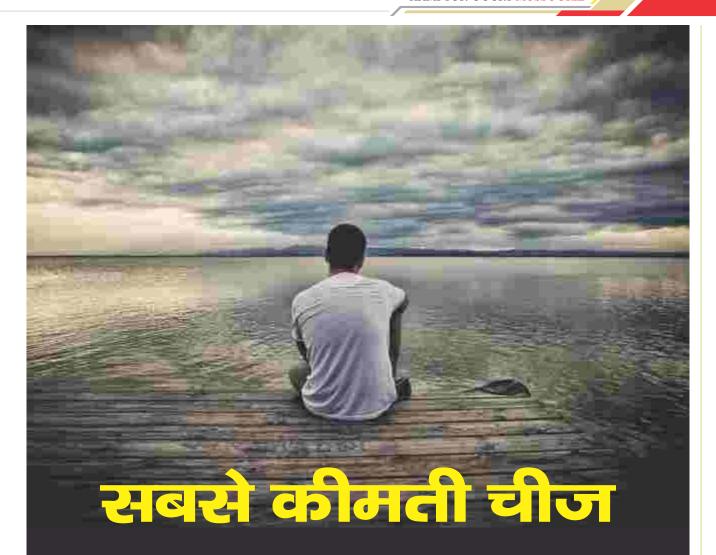

रास्ते चलते हुए व्यक्ति ने जब यह सब देखा तो मछुआरे से कहा, लगता है भैया, यहां पर मछली पकड़ने बहुत दिनों बाद आए हो! अब इस तालाब की मछली कांटे में नहीं फँसती।

मछुआरे ने आश्चर्य से पूछा– क्यों भाई, ऐसा क्या है यहां ? रास्ते चलने वाला व्यक्ति बोला–"पिछले दिनों तालाब के किनारे एक बहुत बड़े संत टहरे थे। उन्होंने यहां मौन के महत्व पर प्रवचन दिया था। उनकी वाणी में इतना तेज था कि जब वह प्रवचन देते तो सारी मछिलयां बड़े ध्यान से प्रवचन सुनती। यह उनके प्रवचनों का ही असर है कि उनके बाद जब भी कोई इन्हे फसाने के लिए कांटा डालकर बैठता है तो यह मौन धारण कर लेती हैं। जब मछली मुंह खोलेंगी ही नहीं तो कांटे में फंसेगीं कैसे? इसीलए बेहतर यही होगा कि आप कहीं और जाकर कांटा डालो।

परमात्मा ने हर इंसान को दो आंख, दो कान, दो नासिका और दो टागें यानी प्रत्येक को दो–दो ही प्रदान किया है। पर जीभ एक ही दी है... क्या कारण रहा होगा? क्योंकि यह एक ही अनेकों भयंकर परिस्थितियों को पैदा करने के लिए पर्याप्त है।

संत ने कितनी सही बात कही कि जब मुंह खोलोगे ही नहीं तो फसोगे कैसे? अगर इंद्रियों पर संयम करना चाहते हो तो इस जीभ पर नियंत्रण कर लेना, तो बाकी सब इंद्रियां स्वयं ही नियंत्रित रहेगी यह बात हमें भी अपने जीवन में उतार लेनी चाहिए।

रोशनी कुमारी- कक्षा 8

एक जाने-माने स्पीकर ने हाथ में पांच सौ का नोट लहराते हुए अपनी सेमीनार शुरू किया। हॉल में बैठे सैकड़ों लोगों से उसने पूछा, "ये पांच सौ का नोट कौन लेना चाहता है?" हाथ उठना शुरू हो गए। फिर उसने कहा, "मैं इस नोट को आपमें से किसी एक को दूंगा पर उससे पहले मुझे ये कर लेने दीजिये –" और उसने नोट को अपनी मुट्ठी में चिमोड़ना शुरू कर दिया– और फिर उसने पूछा, "कौन है जो अब भी यह नोट लेना चाहता है?" अभी भी लोगो के हाथ उठने शुरू हो गए।

"अच्छा" उसने कहा," अगर मैं ये कर दूं ? " और उसने नोट को नीचे गिराकर पैरों से कुचलना शुरू कर दिया – उसने नोट उठाया, वह बिल्कुल चिमुड़ी और गन्दा हो गया था–

" क्या अभी भी कोई है जो इसे लेना चाहता है ?"- और एक बार फिर हाथ उठने शुरू हो गए।" दोस्तों, आप लोगों ने आज एक बहुत महत्त्वपूर्ण पाठ सीखा है– मैंने इस नोट के साथ इतना कुछ किया पर फिर भी आप इसे लेना चाहते थे क्योंकि ये सब होने के बावजूद नोट की कीमत घटी नहीं, उसका मूल्य अभी भी 500 था।

जीवन में कई बार हम गिरते हैं, हारते हैं, हमारे लिए हुए निर्णय हमें मिट्टी में मिला देते हैं– हमें ऐसा लगने लगता है कि हमारी कोई कीमत नहीं है– लेकिन आपके साथ चाहे जो हुआ हो या भविष्य में जो हो जाए, आपका मूल्य कम नहीं होता – आप स्पेशल हैं, इस बात को कभी मत भूलिए–

कभी भी बीते हुए कल की निराशा को आने वाले कल के सपनों को बर्बाद मत करने दीजिये– याद रिखये आपके पास जो सबसे कीमती चीज है, वो है आपका जीवन–"

परीक्षा का भय

परीक्षा के दिन नजदीक आ गए, मन में तरह-तरह के भय छा गए। रात को सोया तो बुरे सपने आने लगे, बनाकर भूत प्रश्न-पत्र डराने लगे। जैसे-तैसे तैयारी कुछ कर पाया,

कुछ याद हुआ कुछ समझ ना आया, गणपित, शंकर जी, राम और हनुमान, यही करेंगे मेरी समस्या का समाधान। भगवान प्रश्न–पत्र जरा आसान सा देना, प्रश्नों का हल बुद्धि में भर देना।।

जैसे ही प्रश्न-पत्र हाथ में आया, कलेजा मेरा मुंह को आया। गणित के पेपर में हिंदी पढ़ आया, जिसे देख मेरा मन घबराया। सपना टूटा तब होश आया,

पढ़ने को फिर मन ललचाया। कर लो पूरा जो है सपना, मेहनत करें तो जग अपना। परीक्षा का भय मत करना, मेहनत करो कर लो जग अपना।।
