Vasant Panchami Celebration

Vasant Panchami is a vibrant festival that marks the onset of spring and celebrates knowledge, wisdom, and arts. The students of DPS Shaheedpath gathered to be immersed in the spirit of this auspicious occasion. The morning assembly began with a traditional invocation to Goddess Saraswati, the embodiment of knowledge, music, arts, and wisdom. Students recited the shloka and prayer dedicated to the goddess, invoking her blessings for a successful academic year ahead.

"Recitation breathes life into poetry, transforming written words into spoken art". Beauty is the realm of poetry; the budding poets of Delhi Public School, Shaheedpath participated in an English Recitation Competition on 19th February. Each recitation shared by our young orators during the event transported us to different worlds, stirred our emotions, and gave us moments to be proud of. Our little orators recited a variety of rhymes with lot of zeal and enthusiasm.

Friendly Shark

Once upon a time there lived a sea crocodile and 3 Goldfishes. The crocodile always wanted to eat them, but whenever he tried to catch them, they somehow managed to escape and survive. One day the crocodile was very hungry and he was desperately craving for those fishes. He followed the fishes but they were swimming faster than him. After a few minutes of following them, the fishes disappeared. The crocodile was very frustrated. Suddenly the fishes called their old friend- The Great White Shark, who defeated the crocodile and killed him finally. Now the fishes were free to live happily in the sea.

Moral of story- Friends should be few but good.

सफर मंजिल तक का

Sakshi
Class XI - E

हम मंजिलो को अपनी, पाने तो चले

पर उस राह पर अपनी, कई मिले

कुछ साथ चले तो कुछ पार चले

यादें बना कर कुछ,

तो कुछ अलविदा कह यादों में ढले

ज़ख्म ले चले, ज़ख्म दे चले

अनजान रास्ते भटकते चले

पता किसी ने न बताया

लेकिन मेहनत करना सबने सिखाया

जैसी करनी वैसी भरनी

और इस सबके बाद भी सहनी

नाइंसाफी तो नहीं

लेकिन इंसाफ भी तो नहीं

उम्मीदों पे सपनों की उड़ान ही सही

बनाने अपनी पहचान

करने चले हम खुद का दान

लेकिन मंजिलों तक पहुंचना होगा न आसान
