A Visit to Governor's House

NEWSLETTER

Students of Class XI from Delhi Public School, Shaheedpath, had the privilege of visiting the Governor House, an enriching experience that combined history, nature, and governance. The visit began with a tour of the Governor's Museum, where students explored artifacts and documents showcasing the rich heritage of governance. They were then mesmerized by the Flower and Horticulture Exhibitions, displaying a vibrant variety of plants.

An Excursion to GC Wetlands

NEWSLETTER

A wetlands excursion at GC Wetlands Shaheedpath, Lucknow developed by LDA. Thirty students of DPS Shaheedpath, along with their teachers went to GC Wetlands Lucknow and witnessed different migratory birds and studied about the conservation of biodiversity and preservation of birds and safety of our natural ecosystem.

DPS, Shaheedpath always believes in fostering a healthy environment for our students, for which a free “ANAEMIA – Awareness, Test Camp” was organised in collaboration with Dr. Renu on 31st January 2025 for the students of our Pre Primary wing. The camp aimed to raise awareness about anaemia, where Dr. Renu told our students about healthy eating habits and encouraged them to avoid junk food.
