

Press Note

April 23, 2026

Delhi Public School, Mohali observed World Book and Copyright Day on 23rd April, 2026 with enthusiasm and a commitment to nurturing a culture of reading among students. Marking the global celebration held annually on 23rd April, the school organized a special D.E.A.R. (Drop Everything and Read) activity during the HR period.

The initiative encouraged students across classes to bring reading material of their choice, including storybooks, novels, comics, and magazines. The dedicated reading time allowed students to immerse themselves in the world of literature, promoting imagination, creativity, and intellectual engagement.

The activity aimed not only to instill a love for reading but also to highlight the significance of authors and their invaluable contributions to society. The quiet reading sessions across classrooms reflected students' keen interest and active participation.

Such initiatives reaffirm the school's commitment to holistic education by fostering essential life skills like focus, empathy, and critical thinking through reading.

The event concluded on a thoughtful note, leaving students inspired to make reading a regular and enriching habit.

