Delhi Public School, Mohali Proudly Presents "Throne of Shadows"

Class X students of Delhi Public School, Mohali dazzled the audience with their mesmerizing production of "Throne of Shadows" - a play inspired by Shakespeare's Macbeth as part of their Annual Prize Distribution Ceremony and Class Show.

This spectacular show seamlessly blended music, dance, and drama, showcasing the students' exceptional talent and creativity. It was a testament to the school's commitment to fostering artistic excellence and providing a platform for students to showcase their talents.

The School Director, Mrs. Reema Dewan, presided over the Annual Prize Distribution Ceremony and honoured the scholars who have excelled in academics, extra-curricular activities, and sports, recognizing their outstanding achievements and commitment to excellence.

In her address to the students and the parents, Mrs. Reema Dewan praised the students' efforts, acknowledging their remarkable achievement. She urged the students to take inspiration from the play and to remain true to their character even in the face of adversities.

The show was well appreciated by the parents and was a resounding success, leaving a lasting impression on all who attended.
