Delhi Public School, Mohali Proudly Presents "Har Aawaz Main Hai Ek Kahaani"

Class IX students of Delhi Public School, Mohali enthralled the audience with their powerful production of "Har Aawaz Main Hai Ek Kahaani", a class show that showcased the strong mindset and struggle of India's iconic freedom fighters, including Mangal Panday, Rani Laxmi Bai, Mahatma Gandhi and Dr. BR Ambedkar. Through music, dance, and drama, the students brought to life the stories of these legendary figures, highlighting their unwavering commitment to fighting for their rights and standing up for what is right.

The show was a great learning experience for all the students, serving as a powerful motivator to stand up for justice and righteousness in their own lives. The audience, comprising parents and esteemed guests, was pleasantly surprised by the students' energetic and impactful performance.

The Director of the school, Mrs. Reema Dewan, commended the efforts of the students, applauding their dedication and passion. She expressed pride in the students' ability to draw inspiration from the lives of these freedom fighters and to embody the values of courage, resilience, and determination.

The event was a testament to the school's commitment to fostering artistic excellence, promoting patriotism, and instilling values of social responsibility in its students. "Har Aawaz Main Hai Ek Kahaani" was a resounding success, leaving a lasting impression on the spectators and inspiring the young minds to become future leaders and change-makers.
