Celebrating the Bard: Delhi Public School, Mohali Hosts Literary Fest on Shakespeare

Delhi Public School, Mohali recently hosted a captivating Literary Fest centred around the timeless works of William Shakespeare, the renowned English dramatist and poet. The event aimed to introduce students to the rich literary heritage of Shakespeare's plays, sonnets, and life.

During the fest, students showcased their creativity through vibrant posters, recitations of Shakespearean sonnets, and self-composed sonnets inspired by the Bard's style. The event also featured engaging games and activities that brought Shakespeare's world to life.

Through this immersive experience, students gained valuable insights into Shakespeare's life, works, and lasting impact on literature. The fest provided a unique opportunity for students to appreciate the Bard's genius and explore his works.

By celebrating Shakespeare's legacy, the school reaffirms its commitment to fostering a love for literature and learning among its students.
