Delhi Public School Mohali Celebrates Raksha Bandhan with Joy and Sibling Bond

Delhi Public School, Mohali came alive with colours, smiles and heartfelt experiences as students across all grades celebrated Raksha Bandhan, the festival that honours the eternal bond of love and protection between siblings. The day's celebration were a vibrant blend of cultural splendour and meaningful learning, reinforcing the values of empathy, duty, respect and responsibility among the young learners.

The celebration began with a special assembly for the senior students, who presented a vibrant skit on sibling relationships. The students beautifully portrayed the bond of friendship and love that Raksha Bandhan embodies, showcasing the importance of relationships and mutual care.

The pre-primary wing brought its own charm to the occasion. Dressed in colourful ethnic attire, the young learners presented songs, rhymes, and expressive skits that highlighted the sacred bond of protection and affection shared between siblings. Their innocent and enthusiastic performances made the event truly special.

In a thoughtful gesture, the primary students crafted beautiful Rakhis for our brave Indian soldiers, expressing their gratitude and appreciation for their service. Using threads, beads, and decorative items, the students created beautiful and meaningful Rakhis, demonstrating their creativity and sense of responsibility.

Through these celebrations, DPS Mohali aimed to instill values of empathy, duty, respect, and responsibility among its students, while honouring India's rich cultural heritage. The event concluded with warm wishes and smiles, truly making it a celebration of the "bond of love."
