

SESSION
2013-2014

The new session 2013-14 started on the 18th March quite ahead of other schools as compared. It was good as it has given time to cope up with the vast course prescribed, easing a little stress from the mind of the children.

Before the new session began the teachers were addressed by the Principal madam. This time it was little different from the previous annual addresses. It somehow brought a change in all the teacher's mind making them feel more like a family and that their individual contributions were equally important for the betterment and growth of school and children. As a motivation for teachers she quoted -

There are two powerful energies i.e. Patience and Silence for:

“Patience makes a person mentally strong and

Silence makes a person emotionally strong”

All in all there was an optimistic scenario among the teachers after her address, ^{after} which was followed ^{by} a snacks party.

thoroughly enjoyed by all staff members.

18-03-13

A short Prayer service was conducted on this day. The most effective lines of the Prayer 'Be creative, do your work with devotion. Then your work becomes worship' invigorated the minds of the children, followed by the beginning of regular classes which continued for a week after with a short Holi/Easter break bringing a little relief after a long tedious work out of final examinations, admissions for the new-session etc.

22-03-13

The children had drawing competition, made posters depicting 'Holika Dahan' symbolising victory of truth over evil to mark the Holi celebrations.

22.04.13

To celebrate the Earth Day which is marked all over by the world on 22nd April - a week long activity was held in school to save earth and how to make it more clean and green for healthy living of the entire humanity. For example - making of bags with waste material (making impressive too), envelope making, use of kitchen waste in preparing manure, recycling of paper, etc. This all was exhibited and was also open for parents. It was in fact well appreciated by the parents of the efforts put in by the children with the help of teachers. The entire exhibition was covered by media the local newspaper 'Smara Ujala'.

Well! the summer season was closely creeping, wanting everyone for a break. The vacations started from 10th of May with its re-opening on 4th July.

8.7.13 Before the re-opening a seminar for teachers was conducted by Dr Ashish Shukla on how learning amongst the children should be enhanced. The most quotable line worth to be noted, according to him was "Slowness in work gives more concentration."

4.07.13 The school "Investiture ceremony" was held. The ceremony was conducted by Ms Ruchi Pandey with the opening ^{motivational} words "Convince Yourself that you can achieve certain things despite your limited capabilities and talents"

The oath was given by senior teachers Ms Kanchan Joshi and Ms Pooja Nagarkoti as Principal Madam was away on some very important work.

In an hour long ^{a short} program marked the entire ceremony and with each student selected for representing the school delivered the oath fluently.
