A Day at the Village Fair

Last Sunday, Aryan visited the village fair with his family. The fair was lively, with colorful stalls selling toys, sweets, and clothes. Children ran around excitedly, holding balloons and playing games. There was a stage where local artists performed dances and sang songs. Aryan and his sister tried their luck at a ring toss game and won a small stuffed toy. They also tasted delicious cotton candy and fresh fruit juice. Outside the fair, there was a small pond where ducks swam peacefully, and a few children were feeding them. Aryan's parents explained how fairs bring the community together and provide entertainment for everyone. As the evening approached, the fair lit up with strings of lights, and music filled the air. Aryan felt happy and tired but enjoyed every moment of the day.

Questions:

1. Where did Aryan go last Sunday?
2. Name two things Aryan bought or won at the fair.
3. What were the local artists doing?
4. How did Aryan feel at the end of the day?
5. Why do fairs bring people together?

The Secret Garden

Mira discovered a small garden behind her house. It was hidden by tall trees and overgrown bushes. As she stepped inside, she noticed flowers of all colors, red, yellow, and purple, blooming everywhere. Birds chirped in the branches, and bees hovered over the flowers collecting nectar. Mira found a small pond in the center with clear water and a few frogs croaking loudly. She decided to clean a small patch and plant some vegetables. Over time, the garden became a peaceful retreat where Mira read books, observed butterflies, and spent quiet afternoons. Her friends also joined her sometimes, and together they learned about plants, insects, and the importance of keeping nature clean. Mira felt proud that she had transformed a neglected space into a lively garden.

Questions:

1. What did Mira find behind her house?
2. Name two types of animals mentioned in the garden.
3. What did Mira plant in the garden?
4. How did Mira feel after transforming the garden?
5. Why is keeping nature clean important, according to the passage?
