CROWNING OF OUR LADY

The crowning ceremony of our Lady took place on May 1st, marked by a serene and elegant atmosphere. The highlight of the event was the crowning moment, where the lady was adorned with a beautiful crown, symbolizing her grace and dignity. The ceremony was accompanied by soothing hymns, adding to the solemnity and beauty of the occasion.

LABOUR DAY

On 1st May, Loreto Convent joyfully celebrated Labour's Day to honour the dedication and hard work of its non-teaching staff. The event began with a heartfelt prayer, thanking all the staff members who contribute silently yet significantly to the school's functioning.

The celebration continued with melodious songs sung by students. An ecstatic dance performance by the students further added excitement to the event.

To show appreciation, a series of fun games were organised for the staff, bringing smiles and laughter. The celebration concluded with fun activities making the day truly memorable.

INTER HOUSE TABLE LAYING COMPETITION

On 29th April, Loreto Convent Intermediate College held its Inter-House Table Laying Competition, celebrating elegance and creativity. Participants from Classes 9 to 12 across Ward, Ball, Hart, and Hogan houses showcased their skills around the theme "Formal Dinner". In 45 minutes, each team created refined table settings featuring fresh flowers, elegant crockery, candles, and menu cards. The event reflected teamwork, aesthetic sense, and attention to detail, making it a graceful and memorable occasion.

EARTH DAY

Our school celebrated Earth Day on April 22, 2025, with a special assembly by Class XII A, featuring readings, a skit, and an Earth Day pledge. Saplings were gifted to coordinators, and Jagriti students shared messages on sustainability. A poster-making competition on climate change and waste management wrapped up the day.

INTER HOUSE: KHO KHO

The kho-kho season kicked off on April 16 with a series of spirited and action-packed matches that reflected the enthusiasm, teamwork, and athletic strength of all participating houses. The opening day's excitement set the tone for a promising season ahead. The main match saw Hart House clinch the top position after a competitive game against Hogan House. Meanwhile, Ball House secured third place in a close contest with Ward House. The matches were a display of true sportsmanship and determination, capturing the vibrant spirit of inter-house sports at Loreto and leaving the audience cheering for more.

INTER HOUSE: BASKETBALL

On April 25, 2025, the highly anticipated Inter-House Senior Basketball Match concluded with an electrifying final between Hart and Ball House. Hart House emerged as champions, displaying remarkable coordination and skill. Ball House delivered a strong performance and secured the runner-up position. Ward House claimed third place, showcasing resilience and commendable sportsmanship. The event was a true celebration of talent and teamwork.

INTER HOUSE: CHESS

The Inter-House Chess Competition held on May 2, 2025, saw enthusiastic participation from both Middle and Senior School students, highlighting their strategic thinking and focus. Hart House secured first place in the Middle division, with Ward House as runner-up. In the Senior category, Hogan House emerged victorious, followed by Ball House. The event encouraged critical thinking, patience, and a spirit of healthy competition.

TALENT HUNT

The Talent Hunt was a resounding success, with numerous students participating in various activities. The event provided a platform for students to showcase their talents, and the best performers were selected for upcoming inter-school events.

The enthusiastic participation and diverse range of activities made it a memorable experience. It not only helped students discover their strengths but also fostered teamwork, creativity, and confidence. Overall, the Talent Hunt was an excellent opportunity for students to shine and excel in their areas of interest.
