The Spirit of Independence Day Shines at NISCORT Media College

AMAL JOSEPH KURIAN

Niscort Media College on 14th August witnessed a vibrant celebration of Independence Day as students gathered for this remarkable event. The campus was a riot of colours and traditions as students showcased their ethnic diversity by donning their traditional outfits.

The occasion was nothing short of a visual treat as Ethnic Day coincided with the commemoration of Independence day celebration. Following the anthem, the stage came alive with a mesmerizing dance performance by the talented girls of the BAJMC 1ST semester.

Their graceful movements and synchronization left the audience in awe, setting a spirited tone for the rest of the event. What followed was a captivating display of cultural identity as each student took to the ramp with confidence and pride.

The runway turned into a passage of cultural exploration, where students exhibited an array of traditional attire that highlighted their heritage.

From the beautiful sarees to amazing embroidered lehengas, each outfit told a unique story. With each step, the ramp became a canvas showcasing the nation's cultural diversity.

Every student shared not only what they were wearing but also the significance behind their competitive spirit further amplified the excitement of the day, with a 'Best Dressed' contest. The coveted title was claimed by Anjali Xalxo and Fr. Somali Anthony, both from the BAJMC 1st semester.

Their attire seamlessly blended tradition and modernity, earning them the admiration of the audience and judges.

NISCORT Media College demonstrated that cultural appreciation and national pride go hand in hand.

The celebration left an impact, reminding everyone that embracing one's heritage is a celebration of the past, a tribute to the present, and a promise for the future.

The event was a poignant yet heart warming affair, filled with heartfelt speeches, nostalgic performances, and the celebration of exemplary students. The evening commenced with a soulful prayer, setting the tone for the evening's proceedings. It was followed by a mesmerizing prayer dance, meticulously choreographed and performed by the talented students of BAJMC 2nd semester. The performance captivated the audience, invoking a sense of reverence and unity. One of the highlights of the event was the farewell speeches delivered by Fr. Jenith and Sr. Michelle. Both figures had played pivotal roles in the institution, guiding and inspiring countless students. Their words were laden with wisdom and emotion, reminiscing about their time at the college and expressing gratitude for the experiences they had shared with the Niscortian community. As the evening continued, attention turned towards recognizing exceptional students. Rubin Varghese and Fr. Dayakar were honored with the prestigious Best Student Award. This recognition was a testament to their dedication, leadership, and contributions to the college community. Their achievements were met with thunderous applause and cheers from their peers. The farewell event served as a poignant reminder of the bonds that had been forged within the college walls. It was a celebration of the past, a reflection on the present, and a hopeful glance into the future. The Niscort community bid farewell to cherished members with heavy hearts but also with a sense of pride, knowing that they would carry the values and lessons learned here into their future endeavours.

NISCORT Begins New Session with Media Training Workshop

ALVIN JOY

NISCORT Media College hosted a one-week workshop for students on Graphic Design, Photography, and Audio-Visual Production. The workshop was launched with the aim to provide participants with knowledge, skills, and hands-on experience in various aspects of media production and communication.

The workshop was inaugurated by the Director, Rev. Fr. Robinson Rodrigues on 7/08/2023. The students from different semesters actively participated in the workshop. Skilled and experienced instructors who are experts in their respective fields took the sessions. The classes were taken by Ms. Ruchika Mahajan, Mr. Akash, Mr. Deepak, and Mr. Sushil. Ms. Ruchika focused on how well the students can utilize the tools in graphic design to communicate effectively with the audience because visual aids are better at conveying ideas. She has covered topics like design principles, different types of software tools, and methods of using design techniques for better visual communication. Mr. Akash and Mr. Sushil oversaw Audio-Visual Production sessions, where they taught the students, topics like covering camera operation, lighting, sound recording, and video editing. They got an opportunity to learn their abilities, especially in the field of editing, which can be further utilized for breaking into the world of content creation themselves.

The Audio production session taken by Mr. Sushil, explored the techniques for recording, editing, and mixing audio content. The students got hands-on learning experience to develop audio and video projects like script writing for short films, advertisements, and designing posters. As the media landscape is constantly evolving with advancements in technology, media workshops will help individuals and professionals stay up to date with the latest tools and techniques, ensuring they can effectively navigate and utilize new media platforms and technologies.

Enthusiastic Welcome: NISCORT hosts fantastic Freshers' Day

AVNI

The students of NISCORT Media College organised the Freshers' Day "Cine Mania 2023" on 26 August 2023 to welcome the Batch of 2023. The event was a perfect blend of entertainment, camaraderie, and a warm welcome to the newest members of the college family.

The motive of the Freshers Party was to make every new student feel connected to an essential role of the NISCORT family and be prepared to accept all the challenges and adventures waiting for them. Cheerful smiles and high spirits marked the welcome party for the new students.

The party's theme was Cine Mania, making the set-up at the spot look ethnic and Western. The party was organised at the Mini Auditorium. It displayed youth and enthusiasm at its best amongst the participants and the audience. The occasion was dignified by the presence of Director, Rev. Fr. Robinson Rodrigues, Principal Dr. Ritu Dubey Tiwari, and all the faculty members. The hosts of the day were Kashish and Nishant of BAJMC 3. Pulsating ambiance, flashing lights, and foot-tapping music set the mood of the party right.

The excitement increased to a joyful high as performances graced the stage. The highlight of the event was the talent show, where freshmen showcased their diverse talents. The performances ranged from soulful music renditions to energetic dance numbers and even power-packed push-ups. The audience was captivated by the talent and creativity displayed by their fellow students. Students from the new batch introduced themselves and showcased their talents as well.

The event also featured interactive games and activities that encouraged students to mingle and form new friendships. It was evident that the seniors were committed to ensuring that the newcomers felt comfortable and supported in their transition to college life. Based on their talent performance, Abhishek Raj Ekka and Ruchika Prena from BAJMC, Semester-1 were declared as Mr. Fresher and Miss Fresher, respectively. Freshers' Day at NISCORT Media College.

NISCORT Campus Radiates Serenity on "International Yoga Day"

ALVIN JOY

The serene campus of NISCORT Media College came alive with positive energy and mindfulness as students, faculty, and staff gathered to celebrate International Yoga Day on 21/06/2023.

Mindfulness and meditation were integral components of Yoga. Participants engaged in a guided meditation session led by the Principal, Dr. Ritu Dubey Tiwari, which aimed to calm the mind and reduce stress.

Focusing on this year's theme 'Yoga for Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam' or 'Yoga for the Welfare of All as One World-One Family', the principal enlightened the students by underscoring the power of yoga to unite people across borders and cultures.

It served as a reminder that yoga is not just a physical practice but a means to achieve balance, peace, and harmony in an increasingly interconnected world.

In these challenging times, the celebration of International Yoga Day serves as a beacon of hope and a testament to the enduring relevance of yoga as a path to better physical and mental well-being. Christopher Biju, from the 5th Semester BAJMC, led the yoga sessions, allowing participants to explore different styles of yoga. Seasoned yoga practitioners and beginners alike had the opportunity to learn new techniques and deepen their practice under the guidance of their peers.

The celebration concluded with a moment of reflection where participants expressed their gratitude for the opportunity to come together, and college officials reaffirmed their commitment to promoting holistic well-being in the academic environment.

India's Chandrayaan-3 Mission, A Historic Success

ADITYA SAXENA

The monumental achievement of Chandrayaan-3's successful landing on the lunar surface on July 14, 2023, has ignited a surge of national pride within India. The culmination of meticulous planning and dedicated efforts by the Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) has not only established India's prowess in space technology but has also elevated the country to the ranks of the elite few who have ventured beyond Earth's bounds. This historic endeavor has propelled India into the prestigious league of nations that have managed to soft-land a spacecraft on the Moon. The lunar south pole, a region of immense scientific interest, became the chosen destination for Chandrayaan-3's touchdown. This achievement not only marks India's conquest of a challenging technical feat but also signifies its global leadership in space exploration. The journey from launch to landing spanned a duration of 1 month and 10 days, a period that exemplifies the culmination of years of planning, research, and technological innovation. The propulsion module, a critical component of the mission, was meticulously designed to carry out the lunar insertion, a process that took 19 days to complete from the point of orbit insertion. The Vikram lander, which played a central role in the mission's success, achieved a seamless landing, demonstrating India's advanced capabilities in precision-controlled descents onto extraterrestrial surfaces. The Pragyan rover, with its planned deployment within 14 days of landing, promises to explore and unlock the mysteries of the lunar surface. The significance of this achievement reverberates far beyond the boundaries of Earth. Chandrayaan-3 has positioned India as a beacon of technological innovation and space exploration on the global stage.

The successful landing serves as a testament to ISRO's unwavering commitment to pushing the boundaries of what is possible and embarking on ambitious missions that captivate the world's attention. This feat not only establishes India's ability to independently engineer complex missions but also positions the nation as a valuable partner in international collaborations for space exploration.

S. Somanath, the chief of ISRO, encapsulated the collective sentiment of the nation when he declared, "India is on the moon." His words encapsulate the monumental nature of this achievement and the pride it instills in every Indian. The successful landing reinforces the vision of a technologically empowered India that can boldly venture into uncharted territories and excel in scientific pursuits. Furthermore, the economic impact of Chandrayaan-3's triumph cannot be overlooked. The technological prowess demonstrated by the mission has the potential to catalyze economic growth by fostering innovation, attracting foreign investment, and nurturing domestic talent. As India cements its reputation as a spacefaring nation, its space industry is poised for growth and collaboration, thus creating a ripple effect that extends far beyond the boundaries of our planet.

The successful landing of Chandrayaan-3 on the lunar surface stands as a testament to India's scientific and technological capabilities. This achievement not only marks India's entry into the exclusive club of lunar explorers but also showcases its ability to undertake complex missions with precision and innovation. The mission's success has ignited national pride, amplified global attention, and paved the way for enhanced economic growth. As India continues its journey into the cosmos, the legacy of Chandrayaan-3 will serve as an enduring source of inspiration for generations to come.

Celebrating Emotional Independence

NISHANT MISHRA

NISCORT Media College felicitated BK Sister Shivani, as part of a training programme for working professionals called 'Celebrating Emotional Independence'. Support The Change, Support Anti Ragging

KASHISH CHAWLA

Ragging, The Word that includes humiliation, harassment or abuse of anyone by another individual it's not necessary that ragging is done by seniors, and the Juniors but mostly this can be one reason of ragging. A very strong step is taken by the NISCORT Media College, to prevent their students getting in the trap of ragging. the Anti-Ragging Cell which is headed by our principal Dr. Ritu Dubey Tiwari in which the newcomers i.e., the first-year students are given special guidance and the seniors are taught to be polite and be cooperative with the juniors. Here is very important point stated as ragging is not necessary that it is done by the seniors but sometimes by juniors or even the classmates. This cell organize a meeting with the principal mam and Bajmc-1st, all class CR's (class representatives) were there for discussion, on the prevention methods of ragging, during this meeting, mam also tell the students that the Anti-ragging cell is always available for students who are indulged in some negative activities and if they are teased by some other.

The important steps that the student should take are: he/she should never obey the wrong order by others and tell their class mentors about everything and the principal mam who ensures that strict action will be taken with every misconduct. The Anti-Ragging form is also filled by the new students, this process is repeated with every new Batch, so as to protect the students from getting harmed, and focus on their studies. NISCORT works amenable on the serious issue of ragging.
