Architects of Peaceful Connections

At St. Mary's Convent Inter College, we strive to be Architects of Peaceful Connections- building bridges of understanding, spreading threads of harmony and nurturing bonds that foster joy and unity. As we weave these peaceful threads, we create a tapestry of togetherness that makes our school a haven of hope.

Divine Confluence

SMCIC, Lucknow, hosted a special celebration marking the merger of IBVM and CJ under the inspiring theme "Divine Confluence." The occasion was graced by the presence of Reverend Sisters and teachers from Loreto Convent and St. Mary's Convent.

The programme was divinely conducted, reflecting unity, gratitude, and shared values. The warm hospitality extended by SMCIC, Lucknow, was deeply appreciated and enjoyed by all present, making the celebration a truly memorable and meaningful one.

Challenge of the Month – Share messages that inspire peace, respect and unity

With hearts full of kindness and minds full of hope, our young voices echoed the power of togetherness. Words like raindrops, soothing the soul, and art that spoke louder than voices filled the corridors of our school with the essence of peace, respect and unity. It was heartening to see our students grasp the essence of these values.

Silver Jubilee Celebration

SMCIC, Lucknow, proudly celebrated the Silver Jubilee of dedicated service of two esteemed teachers, Ms. Joanna Sausan and Mr. Anurag Pandey. The occasion honoured their unwavering commitment, grace, and invaluable contribution to the institution.

Their years of devoted service were warmly appreciated and fittingly rewarded by the school management, fellow teachers, and students, making the celebration a heartfelt tribute to their inspiring journey in education.

A Pinch of Magic

The Pre-Primary section sprinkled joy and magic everywhere as they celebrated Christmas! With tiny hands and Santa caps they danced to festive beats, sang carols, crafted colourful stars and shared smiles.

Joyful Tidings

The tiny tots of Class IV brought Christmas Cheer with a heartwarming assembly. With innocence and devotion, they shared the story of Bethlehem, sang hymns of praise and reflected on the values of love and kindness that Jesus' birth

From the Star to the Saviour: A Christmas Celebration

The school celebrated Christmas with great devotion and joy on 22nd December with the theme "From the Star to the Saviour." The programme featured a beautiful depiction of the Nativity through graceful dance performances, followed by an enthusiastic Carol Singing Competition. The celebration was graced by the presence of the Chief Guest, Reverend Father Anoop Lakra, who blessed the gathering. The event spread the message of love, hope, and peace, marking the true spirit of Christmas.

The sweet voices of our Primary Stars echoed as they also belted out festive carols, filling the air with joy and harmony. The young choristers stole the show with their heartwarming renditions.

Thank You Star: A Celebration of Gratitude

To celebrate the auspicious month of December, the school conducted a meaningful activity to practise the virtue of gratitude. As part of the initiative, students and staff exchanged "Thank You Stars," symbolising the shine and spark that each person brings into the lives of others. This thoughtful gesture fostered a spirit of appreciation, positivity, and mutual respect, making the celebration truly special and value-driven.

Staff's Festive Cheer

The school staff celebrated Christmas with fun games, lively carols and joyful moments. The event culminated with warm wishes from the Management, making it a memorable gathering. A perfect blend of festivity and camaraderie.

SMCIC sparkles with Christmas Decorations

SMCIC radiated the joy of Christmas as students created beautiful stars and vibrant Christmas-themed bulletin boards, filling the campus with festive cheer. The large stars added a magical touch, enhancing the joyful holiday atmosphere.

A Warmth Drive: Sharing Comfort and Care

In a heartfelt initiative, the school organised a Blanket Distribution Drive, where every student and staff member contributed blankets for the needy. This collective effort aimed to spread warmth and comfort during the cold season.

As December draws to a close, we reflect on the joy and warmth of the Christmas festivities, and the treasured memories forged through shared experiences. The month's celebrations, marked by merriment and carols have created a lasting impression. We extend our best wishes for a peaceful and joyous transition into the New Year, filled with hope, promise and happiness.
