Happy Children's Day

Dream Big...
Grow Happy...
Be the Best...

Dear Children,

Children's Day reminds us that every child is a precious gift from God. He has blessed each one of you with a guardian angel to guide and protect you.

This special day is celebrated on the birth anniversary of Chacha Nehru, a great, well-educated and noble leader who loved children dearly. He believed that children are the true strength and future of a great nation like India. He gifted his birthday to you as a day of joy and celebration.

Your parents have given you everything out of love and care. They fulfil your physical and emotional needs and guide you to grow as God-fearing and spiritually enriched individuals. In return, you are expected to respect them and grow into loving, responsible and good human beings.

Your teachers, sisters and the entire school family lovingly take care of your intellectual and social growth. They share their knowledge, guide you and mould you into better human beings.

Dear Children, you are loved, cared for and blessed by so many people. Recognise their love, value their sacrifices and grow into good human beings who will make your parents, teachers, school and our nation proud.

Happy Children's Day to all of you!

Happy Children's Day to all of you!

with love & prayers
