

The Institute of the Blessed Virgin Mary-Loreto Generalate and Red Dot Foundation invite you to our side event 61st Session of the Commission on Social Development

'Decent work for all: Ending vulnerability through education and economic empowerment'

8th of February

9:45 am EST

Register Here

SPEAKERS

Keynote Speaker

H.E AMARA SOWA

Deputy permanent Representative — Political
Permanent mission of
Sierra Leone to the UN

ANCY THOMAS CJ

Director, Mary Ward
Development Centre
Micro financing program
in Bihar, India

ELSAMARIE D'SILVA

Founder,
Red Dot Foundation and Red Dot Foundation Global

SILVIA ZÁBAVOVÁ CJ

Member of the Congregatio
Jesu, Lecturer at the College of St. Elizabeth, Statutory representative of the Jarovnice Civic Association

JACKLINE MWIKALI
MWONGELA

Project Coordinator,
Religious Against Human Trafficking (RAHT Kenya)

ANJALI SINGH

Youth trainee and Trainer –
Kolkata Mary Ward Social Centre

RHEA SETHI

Program
Management Officer,
Red Dot Foundation

AGENDA

In line with the CSocD61 priority theme, co-organized by the Institute of the Blessed Virgin Mary-Loreto Generalate (IBVM/CJ NGO) and Red Dot Foundation (RDF) together and co-sponsored by The Congregation of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd & Company of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, Soroptimist International and Claretian Community will host this side event highlighting the engagement of civil society organizations with local communities, youth and women's groups in providing quality education and economic empowerment through various micro-financing activities, and skill development programmes.

PRATEEKSHA SHUKLA

intern, Institute of the Blessed Virgin Mary-Loreto
Generalate

MODERATORS

SOFIA CALICCHIO

Intern,
Red Dot Foundation
Global

