About the Organisation

Meerut Seva Samaj (MSS) is the officially registered Social Service Society of the “Catholic Diocese of Meerut”, founded in 1977 with a mission to advance the upliftment of the poor and marginalized communities in the Diocese’s remote villages. Since its inception, MSS has strategically mobilized its resources to drive social reform and bring lasting transformation to those trapped in cycles of unawareness, ignorance, and exploitation. Through grassroots animation, capacity building, skill development, Livelihood, Formation and the training of community groups, MSS works tirelessly to empower individuals and communities. Guided by a dedicated Board of 11 members, chaired by the Bishop of Meerut, and supported by a committed team of social workers, MSS continues to uphold justice, dignity and opportunity for all.

Our Vision

Establishment of God’s kingdom based on Gospel Values

Our Mission

To Strive for Human dignity through an Enlightenment and Empowerment process

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Depicting the various activities and events of the organization. The annual magazine, not only serves as the source of inspiration for many who scan through it but also helps to maintain a record of events chronically.

MSS has been instrumental in achieving a considerable progress in the field of social development and building climate resilience. During the past years, the MSS has made significant contribution in the area of women empowerment, strengthening the differently abled building peace and harmony among people, instilling awareness on the importance of organic farming, legal matters, one's rights and duties as a citizen, health and hygiene and other social issues related to day to day living.

It also promotes art and culture by conducting classical dance programs for young girls. Thus, we can see that MSS is making a difference in the social life of the people around.

My heartiest congratulations to the entire team of Meerut Seva Samaj. May this institution become more and more effective and relevant in the social ministry of the church. May it serve as a beacon of Hope and Peace.

With gratitude.

Rt. Rev. Baskar Jesuraj
Bishop of Meerut &
The President of
"Meerut Seva Samaj"

DIRECTOR'S DESK

In the challenging yet profoundly rewarding field of social work, we are constantly reminded of the immense power of human connection and collective action. Here at Meerut Seva Samaj, we have always strived to be a forerunner in this endeavor, pioneering initiatives and extending our reach to those who need us most.

Baba Amte, a titan of compassion and the great beacon of social change in India, for the marginalized, once profoundly stated: "I don't want to be a leader, I want to be one who holds a lantern and shows the way." This sentiment perfectly encapsulates the spirit of Meerut Seva Samaj. We are not here to dictate, but to empower; not to dominate, but to illuminate paths to dignity and self-reliance for those who need it most. Our role is to walk alongside individuals and communities, offering guidance, support, and the tools they need to build a better future for themselves.

In dedicating ourselves to the well-being of others, we discover our own strengths, our purpose, and the profound satisfaction that comes from contributing to a more just and equitable world. It reminds us that our personal growth is intrinsically linked to the positive impact we create in the lives of those we serve.

I'm overwhelmed with immense pride and gratitude to all of you, the true pillars of support for Meerut Seva Samaj. Your unwavering dedication is the very backbone of our social service initiatives here in Meerut and beyond. To our dedicated staff, tireless field workers, compassionate volunteers, passionate advocates, generous benefactors, and invaluable stakeholders – including our supporting partners like Catholic Relief Services (CRS), Caritas India, Manos Unidas, Diocese of Rottenburg, Missio Belgium, Missio München, Communio India, Friends of Sacred Heart, UKSVK, Misereor, Arch Diocese Cologne, and Daurala Sugar Mill – thank you. Your unwavering dedication is the very backbone of MSS Social Service. As Meerut Seva Samaj moves forward, we eagerly anticipate your continuous partnership and guidance, which is vital for us to create a lasting, meaningful impact for our beneficiaries and the Nation as a whole.

With gratitude.

Rev. Fr. Jomon Joseph
Director, Meerut Seva Samaj

- Over 500 farmers are driving sustainable agriculture by promoting eco-friendly practices, forming strong groups, and raising awareness among 900+ villagers.

COMMUNITY HEALTH

Our organization is dedicated to improving community health by ensuring access to essential healthcare services, raising awareness about hygiene and sanitation, and promoting preventive health practices. We work hand-in-hand with local communities to tackle health challenges, organize health camps, and support vulnerable groups – building a healthier and more informed society.

478 Young girls have gained confidence and dignity through menstrual hygiene education, breaking barriers and taboos.

54 Lactating mothers have been supported with vital immunization guidance, protecting the next generation from preventable diseases.

210 womens and girls are now better equipped to monitor their health by Body Mass Index and anemia detection.

More then 200 Villagers have learned the value of nutrition, balanced diets, and micro-nutrients, giving their families a healthier future.

Community leaders — over 400 of them — have emerged as powerful change agents, promoting health and well-being among their groups.

Large-scale health camps, in collaboration with government services, have brought vital check-ups and medical support to more than 650 people who otherwise lacked access.

Over 630 women and girls via health awareness camps, creating a ripple effect of informed decision-making within families and communities.

Focused trainings on HIV/AIDS awareness reached 150 women and girls, breaking barriers of stigma and fostering open dialogue around prevention and care.

Menstrual health continued to be a key area of focus, with 481 adolescent girls educated on menstrual hygiene, aiming to dismantle taboos and promote dignity in menstruation.

In collaboration with local authorities, we raised awareness on livelihood and food security, empowering 341 members with knowledge of government welfare schemes.

We organized 23 community sensitization meetings for 512 participants to promote hygiene, sanitation, and overall well-being.

Conducted Impactful trainings on reproductive child health, newborn care, vaccination, and breastfeeding, sensitizing 550 women to ensure healthier mothers.

More than 200 women Capacitated on Routine Immunization and health check-ups of their body.

In collaboration with govt. authorities, we raised awareness on livelihood, empowering 148 PWDs members with knowledge of government welfare schemes.

HIV-AIDS

Women, especially in developing countries, often face discrimination and isolation when affected by HIV, sometimes even from their own families. Promoting human rights, spreading awareness, and educating communities are essential steps to combat stigma and support those living with HIV/AIDS.

LEGAL CELL

Our primary focus is on women and adolescent girls, who are especially vulnerable to exploitation by those in positions of power. One of the major barriers to securing their legal rights is illiteracy. To address this, we organized training programs aimed at increasing their awareness of legal issues and rights. As a result, 120 women and girls were empowered, gaining the confidence and knowledge needed to attain a more respected and empowered place in society.

PEACE & HARMONY

Peace and harmony thrive when diverse communities come together through mutual respect, dialogue, and collective action. Empowering all voices—especially women and youth—fosters unity, justice, and hope for a better future.

Bridges of trust are being built across districts. Interface meetings have connected 120 diverse participants, sparking open dialogue and lasting harmony.

At the grassroots, 24 village level forums comprising 351 voices have come together, strengthening bonds and resolving differences through collective community action.

The ripple effect is growing over 3,670 individuals have been engaged in 309 dynamic awareness sessions, where peace and healthy living go hand in hand.

Dedicated groups of interfaith leaders are now guiding 40 committed individuals to inspire peaceful coexistence and shared prosperity.

Women and adolescents, often sidelined in peace building, are now leading the way - 20 community based organizations with 240 empowered members are actively shaping a culture of understanding and compassion.

RIGHTS & ENTITLEMENTS

Every individual deserves to live with dignity, security, and equal opportunity. Rights and entitlements are not privileges—they are the foundation of justice and fairness. When people are aware of their rights and empowered to claim them, they can break the cycle of poverty, discrimination, and exclusion, creating stronger and more equitable communities for all.

Community Participation Overview : Group vs People

1st Success Story

“SUBHASH CHANDRA” - From Chemical Reliance to Organic Pioneer in Bahadurpur, Meerut.

“I once believed chemicals were the only way to grow crops. But the ‘Saksham Project’ opened my eyes to something better.

Today, I farm not just for income, but for my family’s health, my soil’s future, and my village’s pride. If I can change, so can anyone.” Subhash Chandra, a farmer from our community, followed the same path many others had—relying heavily on chemical fertilizers and pesticides. For years, he unknowingly harmed his soil, risked his family’s health, and contributed to environmental decline, believing there was no alternative. That changed when he joined the Saksham Project—an initiative focused on sustainable and organic farming. It wasn’t just a training program; it was the beginning of a transformation.

When Subhash first decided to go organic, he faced ridicule. Fellow farmers laughed and dismissed it as a “fool’s dream.” But Subhash had seen the truth. Backed by training and sheer determination, he learned how to prepare his own natural fertilizers, pest repellents, and growth boosters—reviving his land from the ground up.

Between November 2024 and January 2025, Subhash cultivated methi (fenugreek), shalgam (turnip), and palak (spinach) on his three-bigha farm. His investment of just Rs. 4,300 in seeds, ploughing, water, and labor gave him a yield of 500 kg of methi, 600 kg of shalgam, 100 kg of palak. He earned Rs. 13,000, making a net profit of Rs. 8,700 — clear proof that organic farming is not just sustainable, but profitable. But the rewards didn’t stop there. Subhash’s farm became a living example of environmental health. His soil began to regenerate. His family ate safer, chemical-free vegetables. He even created a nutrition garden at home, ensuring fresh, organic produce on his own plate. Inspired by the change, Subhash started sharing saplings from his nursery and training other farmers. And the most beautiful change? Those who once mocked him—Jagpal, Mohanpal, Saudan, Pratap, and Jaiprakash—now follow in his footsteps. What began as one man’s quiet determination has now grown into a community movement—proving that change is possible, and it starts with courage.

2nd Success Story

A Journey from Struggle to Strength – Deepa's Story from Jani Khurd

I am Deepa, a resident of Jani Khurd village. My story is not just about hardship – it's about hope, resilience, and transformation. My husband Mukesh and I have four children—three sons and a daughter. Life was already difficult with our limited income from his small vegetable business. But everything came crashing down when that business failed, and he suddenly fell ill. With no income and growing responsibilities, I was forced to step out and work on farms, clean utensils, and take up odd jobs just to put food on the table.

The hardest part was watching my children leave school due to our financial struggles. Their dreams felt like they were slipping away. Then came a turning point, I met Renu Rani, a community motivator from the "Uphold the Dignity" project run by "Meerut Seva Samaj". She introduced me to the power of Self Help Groups (SHGs) a platform where women come together to uplift one another. With her encouragement, I joined hands with nine other women to form the Pooja SHG. We began saving small amounts, but the impact was big.

Renu guided us in linking our SHG to the National Rural Livelihood Mission (NRLM). With her help, I received training and support to start something of my own. I took a loan of Rs. 80,000 from the SHG and, together with my husband, opened a small canteen. Today, that canteen is not just a source of income it's a symbol of our new beginning.

With continued support from the organization, I also benefitted from the government's Housing Scheme. Most importantly, my children are back in school, and our family has found stability and dignity again. My confidence has grown, and I now dream bigger – for myself and for my community. I am deeply grateful to "Meerut Seva Samaj" for lighting the path for women like me. Their work is changing lives, and I hope they continue to uplift many more families through their powerful initiatives.

Thankyou.
